

CONTENTS

Preface	3
Introduction	7
Key Findings	15
Chapter 1: Arts and Cultural Curricula: Responsibility for Objectives and Development	17
1.1. Levels of responsibilities for creating arts and cultural curricula	17
1.2. Aims of arts education	18
Chapter 2: The Organisation of the Arts Curriculum	23
2.1. Integrated and separate arts curricula	23
2.2. Compulsory and optional arts subjects	26
2.3. Taught time on the arts	29
2.4. Cross-curricular links between arts and other subjects	31
2.5. The use of ICT as part of the arts curriculum	32
Chapter 3: Initiatives and Recommendations for the Development of Artistic and Cultural Education	35
3.1. National organisations and networks specifically set up to promote arts and cultural education	35
3.2. Collaborations between schools and the world of the arts and culture	37
3.3. The use of ICT in arts and cultural education	41
3.4. Organisation of extra-curricular arts and cultural activities	43
3.5. Arts-related festivals, celebrations and competitions	47
3.6. Other initiatives to support and develop arts education	49
Chapter 4: Pupil Assessment and Monitoring Teaching Quality	51
4.1. Pupil assessment	51
4.2. Monitoring teaching quality	61
Conclusions	64

Chapter 5: Arts Teachers: Education and Training	65
5.1. Arts teachers in compulsory general education	65
5.2. Skills and qualifications of arts teachers	68
5.3. The involvement of professional artists in teacher education and training	75
Conclusions	77
Glossary	83
Table of Figures	85
References	87
Annex	89
Changes in arts education planned or implemented after 2007	89
Acknowledgements	99