

CONTENTS

Foreword	7
Philippe Van Parijs
Opening address	11
Mark Eyskens
CHAPTER 1 Social justice in multicultural societies	13
David Miller
CHAPTER 2 Ethnicity, trust, and the welfare state	33
Stuart N. Soroka, Richard Johnston and Keith Banting
CHAPTER 3 Comments on Miller and Soroka, Johnston & Banting	59
Anne Phillips
CHAPTER 4 Questions for Miller and Soroka, Johnston & Banting	65
Andreas Follesdal
CHAPTER 5 Solidarity in heterogeneous communities	69
Eliana La Ferrara
CHAPTER 6 The Co-evolution of love and hate	81
Samuel Bowles and Jung-Kyoo Choi
CHAPTER 7 Questions for La Ferrara and Bowles & Choi	99
Ingrid Robeyns
CHAPTER 8 Institutional design, cultural diversity and economic solidarity: A comparison of South Africa, Brazil and Nigeria	101
Jeremy Seekings
CHAPTER 9 Class and nation	139
Yael Tamir
CHAPTER 10 Comments on Seekings and Tamir	157
Fábio D. Waltenberg
CHAPTER 11 Questions for Seekings and Tamir	167
Serena Olsaretti
CHAPTER 12 Language Policy and Civil War	171
David D. Laitin
CHAPTER 13 On the costs of cultural diversity	189
François Grin

CHAPTER 14	Comments on Laitin and Grin	203
	Jean Laponce
CHAPTER 15	Questions for Laitin and Grin	211
	Rob Reich
CHAPTER 16	Linguistic pluralism as a serious challenge to democratic life	213
	Dominique Schnapper
CHAPTER 17	Do multiculturalism policies erode the welfare state?	227
	Keith Banting and Will Kymlicka
CHAPTER 18	Comments on Schnapper and Banting & Kymlicka	285
	Justine Lacroix
CHAPTER 19	Questions for Schnapper and Banting & Kymlicka	293
	Neus Torbisco Casals
CHAPTER 20	Between Mill and Hallstein. Cultural diversity as a challenge to European integration	299
	Peter A. Kraus
CHAPTER 21	Cultural diversity, European integration and the welfare state	315
	Ugo Pagano
CHAPTER 22	Comments on Kraus and Pagano	331
	Patrick Savidan
CHAPTER 23	Questions for Kraus and Pagano	349
	Dario Castiglione
CHAPTER 24	Concluding Reflections	353
	Will Kymlicka
CHAPTER 25	What did we learn?	357
	Brian Barry
CHAPTER 26	Cultural diversity against economic solidarity ? ..	371
	Philippe Van Parijs
	Index	397
	Table of contents	403

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword	7
Philippe Van Parijs
Opening address	11
Mark Eyskens
CHAPTER 1
Social justice in multicultural societies	13
David Miller
1. Introduction	13
2. Divergent conceptions of justice?	16
3. Unwillingness to practise justice towards outsiders?	24
4. Conclusion	29
CHAPTER 2
Ethnicity, trust, and the welfare state	33
Stuart N. Soroka, Richard Johnston and Keith Banting
1. Introduction	33
2. Modelling trust	36
3. Modelling support for the welfare state	44
4. Discussion and conclusions	50
CHAPTER 3
Comments on Miller and Soroka, Johnston & Banting	59
Anne Phillips
1. Which differences?	59
2. Does trust matter?	62
3. Culture and “race”	63

CHAPTER 4

Questions for Miller and Soroka, Johnston & Banting 65

Andreas Follesdal

CHAPTER 5

Solidarity in heterogeneous communities 69

Eliana La Ferrara

1. Introduction 69
2. Theoretical framework 69
 - 2.1. Heterogeneity and public good provision 69
 - 2.2. Heterogeneity and community formation 72
3. Empirical evidence 73
 - 3.1. Heterogeneity and public good provision 73
 - 3.2. Heterogeneity and community formation 76
4. Concluding remarks 78

CHAPTER 6

The Co-evolution of love and hate 81

Samuel Bowles and Jung-Kyoo Choi

1. Introduction 82
2. Variance reduction, segmentation, and conflict 86
3. Simulating the co-evolution of love and hate 88
4. Artificial histories 91
5. Conclusion 95

CHAPTER 7

Questions for La Ferrara and Bowles & Choi 99

Ingrid Robeyns

CHAPTER 8

Institutional design, cultural diversity and economic solidarity: A comparison of South Africa, Brazil and Nigeria 101

Jeremy Seekings

1. Solidarity and social citizenship in the North 102
2. Solidarity and social citizenship in the South 104

3. South Africa	109
4. Brazil	115
5. Nigeria	122
6. Conclusions	128
CHAPTER 9
Class and nation	139
Yael Tamir
1. Class, risks and opportunities	139
2. The nation-state era: the formation of a cross-class coalition	143
3. The global era: the return of the class struggle	148
4. Concluding remarks	152
CHAPTER 10
Comments on Seekings and Tamir	157
Fábio D. Waltenberg
1. Introduction	157
2. The conference conjecture	157
3. Jeremy Seekings' and Yael Tamir's reactions	158
3.1. Seekings: counter-examples and institutional analyses to refute the trade-off	158
3.2. Tamir: within-group risks and opportunities differentials to refute the trade-off	160
4. Selected objections	164
4.1. Seekings	164
4.2. Tamir	164
5. Final comments	165
CHAPTER 11
Questions for Seekings and Tamir	167
Serena Olsaretti
CHAPTER 12
Language Policy and Civil War	171
David D. Laitin
1. Pattern I. Strong states, weak groups and low probability of civil war	174
2. Pattern II. Weak states, recognition and high probability of civil war	177

3. Pattern III. Advanced industrial states — language recognition in the context of state weakening (but not sufficiently so as to invite insurgency)	180
4. Conclusion	182

CHAPTER 13

On the costs of cultural diversity

François Grin

1. Introduction	189
2. Parsing the problem: solidarity between whom?	190
3. Identifying and assessing costs	192
4. Diversity and justice	197
5. Conclusion	200

CHAPTER 14

Comments on Laitin and Grin

Jean Laponce

CHAPTER 15

Questions for Laitin and Grin

Rob Reich

CHAPTER 16

Linguistic pluralism as a serious challenge to democratic life

Dominique Schnapper

1. Introduction	213
2. Historical experience	215
3. The “ethnic” and the “civic”	218
4. Policy	221

CHAPTER 17

Do multiculturalism policies erode the welfare state?

Keith Banting and Will Kymlicka

1. Section 1: The empirical complaint against MCPs	230
1.1. The crowding out effect	230
1.2. The corroding effect	231
1.3. The misdiagnosis effect	232
1.4. Crowding-out: the counter claim	234

1.5. The corroding effect: the counter claim	236
1.6. The misdiagnosis effect: the counter claim	237
2. Section 2: What are multiculturalism policies?	241
2.1. Immigrants	242
2.2. Sizeable national minorities	245
2.3. Indigenous peoples	247
3. Section 3: The available evidence	254
4. Section 4: how to test the compliant?	256
5. Section 5: The data	262
5.1. Immigrant minorities	262
5.2. National minorities	264
5.3. Indigenous peoples	264
5.4. Narrowing the sample	267
5.5. Summary	268
6. Section 6: Two case studies	269
6.1. Canada	269
6.2. Belgium	273
6.3. Summary	276
7. Section 7: summary and reflections	276

CHAPTER 18

Comments on Schnapper and Banting & Kymlicka

Justine Lacroix

1. Introduction	285
2. Linguistic pluralism and democracy	285
3. Multiculturalism policies and the welfare state	289
4. Conclusion	291

CHAPTER 19

Questions for Schnapper and Banting & Kymlicka

Neus Torbisco Casals

1. Schnapper and the nation-state	293
2. Banting & Kymlicka and worldwide solidarity	297

CHAPTER 20

Between Mill and Hallstein. Cultural diversity as a challenge to European integration 299*Peter A. Kraus*

1. The Austro-Hungarian “precedent” 299
2. Mill vs. Hallstein 301
3. Linguistic diversity in West European democracies 306
4. Recognition as solidarity 310

CHAPTER 21

Cultural diversity, European integration and the welfare state 315*Ugo Pagano¹*

1. Introduction 315
2. The limits to the competitive view of federalism 317
3. Cultural-linguistic standardisation and individual mobility:
a multiplicity of institutional equilibria 318
4. Social protection and cultural-linguistic standardisation:
institutional complements and alternative insurance devices 321
5. A possible model of “mild European federalism” 323
6. Coping with globalization: a “European Insurance Scheme”
among National welfare states 325
7. Conclusion 328

CHAPTER 22

Comments on Kraus and Pagano 331*Patrick Savidan*

1. Accommodation of linguistic diversity and “the subsidiarity principle” 332
2. The social requirements of a European federal integration 336
3. Democratic challenge and social justice in the EU 339
 - 3.1. Language planning and the European Union 340
 - 3.2. Social justice in the European Union 342

CHAPTER 23

Questions for Kraus and Pagano 349*Dario Castiglione*

CHAPTER 24Concluding Reflections 353*Will KymlickaCHAPTER 25*What did we learn? 357*Brian Barry*

1. What is the question? 357
2. How to do nothing 360
3. Is language the problem? 365
4. Can solidarity be rescued by institutions? 367

CHAPTER 26Cultural diversity against economic solidarity? 371*Philippe Van Parijs*

1. Introduction 371
 - 1.1. The presumption 371
 - 1.2. Cultural diversity 372
 - 1.3. Economic solidarity 375
2. Local diversity against economic solidarity? 377
 - 2.1. Three mechanisms behind the tension 377
 - 2.2. Seekings's challenge 379
 - 2.3. Soroka, Johnston and Banting's challenge 380
 - 2.4. Banting and Kymlicka's challenge 381
 - 2.5. Is there a tension, and what should be done? 382
3. Territorial diversity against economic solidarity? 386
 - 3.1. Laponce's law and the linguistic territoriality principle 386
 - 3.2. Laitin's seemingly bad news 387
 - 3.3. Pagano's seemingly good news 388
 - 3.4. Why the EU can expect to start doing worse than the US 390
 - 3.5. Can the tension be alleviated? 392
 - 3.6. Territoriality at the cost of solidarity? 393

Index 397Table of contents 403