

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Part One: Lexicology

I. Lexicology and Lexicography	5
II. The Lexeme: Its Basic Features	12
III. The Content of the Lexeme	26
IV. The Form of the Lexeme	41
V. Monosyllabic Trends of Modern English Lexemes	65
VI. The Formation of New Lexemes	72
VII. New Lexemes Due to Conversion	82
VIII. The Structural Problems of the Modern English Vocabulary	88
IX. The English Vocabulary Seen Diachronically	97

Part Two: Stylistics

I. The Functional Conception of Style	113
II. The Literature on English Stylistics	127
III. Traditional Functional Styles of English	135
1. The Colloquial Style	136
2. Journalese: The Bad Newspaper Style	139
3. The Moralizing or Sermany Style	143
4. Oratorical: The "Speech" Style	148
5. "Good English" - simple but monumental style	152
IV. The Functional Classification of English Styles	159
V. More Remarks on Some Marked Styles of English	169
VI. On the English Officialese Style	187
VII. The Problem of "Good English"	195

Bibliography	216
--------------------	-----