

CONTENTS

Foreword	5
1. Definition, status and characteristics of the social security system	7
1.1 Sources of social security law	9
1.2 Legal social security relationship	12
1.3 Classification of the social security system	14
2. Insurance system (systemic relationships, organisation and financing)	18
2.1 Insurance relationships in social insurance and public health insurance	20
2.1.1 The employee category	21
2.1.2 Self-employed persons category	26
2.1.3 Parallel exercise of self-employment and employment	28
2.1.4 Exemption and exclusion from contribution obligations	29
2.1.5 Specific categories of premium payers.	31
2.2 Characteristics of the pension scheme	36
2.3 Benefit relationships in social insurance and public health insurance	41
2.3.1 Benefits under the sickness insurance scheme.	42
2.3.2 Benefits under the pension insurance scheme.	48
2.3.3 Benefits under the unemployment insurance scheme	55
2.3.4 Benefits under the injury insurance scheme	56
2.3.5 Benefits under the guarantee insurance scheme	62
2.3.6 Healthcare.	63
2.4 Organisation of the insurance system	67
3. State social support	71
3.1 Childbirth allowance, supplement to the childbirth allowance and multiple birth allowance	72
3.2 Parental allowance	74
3.3 Childcare allowance	76
3.4 Child allowance and supplement to the child allowance	77
3.5 Allowances to support substitute childcare	80
3.6 Funeral allowance	83
3.7 Organisation of the social support system	84
4. Social assistance system	85
4.1 Material hardship	86
4.2 Social hardship	94
4.3 Organisation of the social assistance system	106

Resume108
Bibliography110
About the author111