

CONTENTS

Foreword	5
----------	---

PART I

THEORIZING SOVEREIGNTY: THE CONCEPT OF SOVEREIGNTY IN INTERNATIONAL LAW, CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND EUROPEAN LAW

Sovereignty and the EU: The UK perspective and primacy clauses Paul Craig	9
The concept of sovereignty Matthias Herdegen	26
State sovereignty and integration under development: How to assess these notions Luboš Tichý	32
Sovereignty and “Open Constitutional State” in the jurisprudence of the German Federal Constitutional Court Rudolf Streinzi	53

PART II

THE LIMITS OF CONFERRAL: CONSTITUTIONAL “CORE” OR NATIONAL CONSTITUTIONAL IDENTITY?

Sovereignty from different perspectives Eliška Wagnerová	67
Federal solution to the EU internal sovereignty conundrum Tomáš Dumbrovský	80
50 years of integration: Changes in Europe Laurens Jan Brinkhorst	101
Constitutional limits for European integration Jiří Zemánek	107

PART III

SOVEREIGNTY AND FURTHER INTEGRATION: PERCEPTION OF SOVEREIGNTY IN POST-COMMUNIST COUNTRIES AND LISBON TREATY

CEE Constitutional courts and EU law: Three contributions to the supremacy discourse Anneli Albi	123
Sovereignty and democracy in the European Union Roland Bieber	147
Adoption of the euro by Poland: Loss of sovereignty or its enhancement? Katarzyna Witkowska-Chrzczoneowicz	159
Updating sovereignty Ryszard Stemplowski	172
Bibliography	176
List of authors	184