

Preface	5
1. Communication before the conference	7
1.1 Telephoning	9
1.1.1 Telephoning phrases	10
1.1.2 Tips for getting people to slow down	12
1.2 Effective communication through email	16
1.2.1 General format	16
1.2.2 Content of the message	17
1.2.3 Delivering different types of information about meetings or processes	17
1.2.4 Flaming in emails	18
1.2.5 Checking, proofreading	19
2. Conference abstract	20
2.1 Audience	20
2.2 Format and content	21
2.3 Creating a conference abstract	24
3. Conference proceedings paper	27
4. Poster presentation	28
4.1 Purpose of poster presentation	28
4.2 Components of a research poster	29
4.3 Process of poster creation	31
4.4 Poster preparation in brief	42
4.5 Presenting a poster	43
5. Oral presentations	46
5.1 Aspects of a presentation	46
5.1.1 Audience analysis	46
5.1.2 Communicative aim	47
5.1.3 Spoken versus written communication	47
5.1.4 Structure	47
5.1.5 Structuring aids	50
5.2 Preparation of presentation	51
5.3 Language of presentations	54
5.3.1 Verbal structuring aids	54
5.3.2 Connectors	55
5.3.3 Description of visuals	57

5.3.4 Linguistic means	59
5.4 Delivery	61
5.4.1 The voice	61
5.4.2 Visuals	62
5.4.3 The body	66
5.4.4 Timing	69
5.5 Question time	70
5.6 Types of presentations	73
5.6.1 Introducing oneself and colleagues in different situations	73
5.6.2 Defining terms	78
5.6.3 Object description	83
5.6.4 Explaining a process/procedure	89
5.6.5 Problem-solution	93
5.7 Presentation assessment	98
5.7.1 Some hints for an effective oral presentation	98
5.7.2 Evaluation guidelines for peer response and self evaluation	100
5.8 Public speaking	104
6. Small talk	109
6.1 Clear communication	111
6.2 Be a pleasant person to talk to	112
6.2.1 How to start small talk	113
6.2.2 The art of small talk	114
6.2.3 Get ready for the conference	116
6.2.4 Your behaviour during a conference	117
Bibliography	119