

Summary.

Preface.

§1. Introduction.

1. Euclidean n -dimensional space.
2. Convex polyhedra.

§2. Some geometrical theorems.

3. $(n+1)$ -type theorems.
4. $2n$ -type theorems.

§3. Political equilibria.

5. Conflicts.
6. Political power of pressure groups.
7. Marx labour value of goods.
8. A change of a social group's living style.
9. A realization of political possibilities in the society.

References.

This book is written for mathematicians, politologists, sociologists, political economists and anthropologists.