

Contents

1	The nature and the purpose of accounting	6
	Key terms	6
	The need of information. Accounting as an information	6
	Definition of accounting	8
	Accounting history	8
	Accounting framework	9
	Accounting ethics	9
	Users of accounting information	10
	Exercises	11
2	Object of accounting – assets and liabilities	13
	Key terms	13
	Basic structure of assets	13
	Fixed assets	15
	Inventories	18
	Basic structure of equities and other liabilities	19
	Temporary accounts of assets and liabilities	22
	Exercises	23
3	Balance sheet – reporting financial position	27
	Key terms	27
	Basic concept of the balance sheet	27
	Basic structure of the balance sheet	29
	Development of the balance sheet: balance sheet changes	30
	Exercises
4	Basic accounting concepts	41
	Key terms	41
	Generally accepted accounting principles	41
	Exercises	42

5	Methodical tools for evidence of the object of accounting	46
	Key terms	46
	Accounting documents, accounting evidence, books of account	46
	Proceeding of accounting works performed within accounting period and process of keeping real accounts	48
	Exercises	51
6	Trial balance	63
	Key terms	63
	Substantiality and form of trial balance. Revelation of errors	63
	Types of errors not revealed by trial balance	64
	Exercises	64
7	Profit and loss account, income statement – reporting financial performance	73
	Key terms	73
	Types of expenditures, definition of expense, revenue, profit and loss	73
	Basic concept and report form of income statement	74
	Types of accounts	76
	Relation between financial statement	77
	Exercises	78
8	Valuation methods – measuring financial position	97
	Key terms	97
	Valuation methods based on historic and current cost	97
9	Selected problems of closing-the-books	102
	Key terms	102
	Process of inventory-taking	102
	Bibliography	105
	Appendix A: Chart of expenses and revenues	106
	Appendix B: Lexicon (English version)	108