

Contents

Introduction	9
I. Mysticism in Moses Maimonides	21
Jews are chosen conditionally	21
Love of God	30
The “intellectual worship” of God	38
The continuous contemplation of God	43
The Inner Knowledge of God	45
Maimonides and his approach to the ordinary man	50
Maimonides and Prayer	53
The influence of Greek philosophy on Maimonides	59
Maimonides and Moslem Spain	66
Maimonides` s concept of evil	69
The Song of Songs – Maimonides and the Messianic Idea	71
Abraham Abulafia – The Jewish mystic whose spiritual guide was Maimonides	76
Love – mystic union in Maimonides and Abraham Abulafia	79
The Maimonidean Controversy	84
II. The Gerona circle	85
Azriel: Plotinus, En Sof and Kabbala	85
Exile of the Shekhinah – the Divine Presence – in the Talmud and in the Kabbalah	86
Isaac the Blind	89
Nahmanides	90
Nahmanides and Spirituality	92
The influence of neoplatonism on the fact of creation and the beginning of being in the Gerona circle	95
Nicolas de Cusa and Johannes Reuchlin	102
Israel has to pursue righteousness and love and asks Teshuva – Pardon from God	105
Maimonides, Nahmanides and Thomas Aquinas	109
The disputation between Nahmanides and Pablo Christiani	112
III. The Zohar and the Lurianic Kabbalah	117
The Zohar and the Essence of Judaism	117
How the beginning created God - Elohim	118
En Sof and Sephiroth – the Inner Life of God	119
Two types of Kabbalah – Maa`se Bereshit (Genesis) and Ma`ase Merkavah (Ezekiel)	123
The book of Exodus and the Inner Light in Judaism	124
Expulsion of the Jews from Spain	127
The start of the Lurianic Kabbalah	131
Shevirat ha Kelim – Breaking of the Vessels	135
Gnosticism and Hekhalot literature	140

Adam Quadmon – The Primordial Man	142
The inner and enveloping lights	145
Before Adam sinned he was a purely spiritual being	148
The Book of Mirrors – God needs Man	150
Saadya Gaon, Franz Kafka and the Kabbalah	151
Etz Hayyim (Tree of Life) - the basic book of the Lurianic Kabbalah	158
Moshe Cordovero – The First Philosopher of the Safedian Kabbalah	160
Chayim Vital and Isaac Luria – disciples of Cordovero	166
The Old Man And The Beautiful Maiden	173
The Idea Of a Suffering God	176
The influence of Plotinus and of Gnosis on the Kabbalah	178
The Lurianic Kabbalah as the result of the Exile from Spain	185
Adam and Eve`s sin as the origin of all Evil	192
God Suffers through our wickedness	194
God`s eternity and the transience of human life	196
Idolatry as Betrayal of God	196
Is there eternal life?	198
God suffers with Israel	199
God, Israel and Torah are one Unity	203
God is in the state of becoming	205
Exile and Return	209
Judaism, love and human relations	215
Israel Baal Shem Tov and love for children in Judaism	222
IV. Holocaust – the greatest tragedy in Jewish history	229
Holocaust and Tikun ha Olam [Improvement of the World]	229
Kabbalah and evil – The answers to present day questions	231
The Akeda [Binding of Isaac]	238
“If you will not believe you will not be firm”	240
Kabbalah and the Holocaust	242
Why did Haman want to kill the Jews? They were different.	246
The Jewish commandment to purify yourself and the Nazi Nihilism	248
Shekhinah – The Divine Presence – has to be united with Israel	252
Israel as the suffering Job	253
Kafka, Kabbalah and the start of the Nazi Era	258
Jewish philosophy and poetry facing the totalitarian regimes of the twentieth century	261
Conclusion	271
Glossary	277
Index	293