

Contents

Chapter	Page
Preface	V
1. Our Home	1
What an English house looks like. The rooms of a house and what they are for. Visits.
2. Inside Our Home	3
The furniture and fittings of a house.
3. Our Family	6
Near and distant relatives.
4. Dressing	8
What a man does in the morning. A man's wardrobe. Getting a suit made at the tailor's.
5. My Room	11
What my bedroom looks like.
6. Ladies' Dress	13
Everything a lady wears. What she does at the dress-maker's and at the milliners'.
7. Meals	15
Mealtimes and food. Dinner-table expressions.
8. Our Garden	18
All about gardening and garden flowers, fruit and vegetables.
9. Family Customs	20
Christening. Wedding customs. Christmas and other festivals.
10. Space and Time	23
The planets, seasons, months, days of the week. Useful expressions relating to time.
11. The Time of Day	25
Clocks and watches. How to tell the time. Greenwich time. Summer time. Some more useful idioms.
12. The English Climate	28
Different kinds of weather. The thermometer and barometer.
13. Geography of the British Isles	32
English counties, rivers, forests, coal-fields etc. Characteristics of Scotland and Ireland.

VIII

Chapter	Page
14. An English Farm	35
Description of a farm. Domestic animals and their cries. Agricultural implements. Harvesting. English village life.
15. Geography of the World	38
Principal geographical expressions. The oceans, continents, European states, principal countries of the world. The British Empire. European nationalities and languages.
16. The Human Body	42
Parts of the body. Idioms employing the word 'mind', and other useful idioms.
17. Speech	45
The speech organs. How we speak. Pronunciation and intonation.
18. Illness.	47
The principal diseases. Sending for the doctor. Death (see also Chap. 3, notes). Hospitals (see also Chap. 20). Going away for a holiday (see also Chap. 43). Laws of Health. Proverbs about health.
19. Our Town	50
Administration of an English town. Street. life. Shop signs. Names of vehicles.
20. Our Town (continued)	53
Street etiquette. Slums. Hospitals. Provision for the unemployed. A telephone kiosk (see also Chap. 24, notes). Asking one's way about.
21. Shops	55
The different kinds of tradesmen and what we buy from them.
22. Shopping	58
Dialogues at the grocer's, the butcher's, the hosier's and the shoemaker's.
23. Letter-writing	60
How to write a familiar letter. The opening. The close. How to address an envelope. How to write a letter of thanks, apology, condolence or invitation. (For business letters see Chap. 48.)

Chapter	Page
24. The Post Office	62
English postal rates. The G. P. O. What happens to a letter when it is posted. Sending off money, parcels and telegrams. The telephone (see also Chap. 20).
25. Banks	65
Making out a cheque. The principal English banks. English money. How to open a bank account. Changing foreign money. Making out a receipt (see notes).
26. Theatres	68
27. The Cinema	71
28. Books and Reading	73
Make-up of a book. Libraries. The Poet Laureate. (For a survey of modern literature see Chap. 55.)
29. Cricket and Football	76
How cricket, association and Rugby football are played. The Cup Final.
30. Schools	78
The English educational system from the elementary school to the university.
31. The Public Schools and Oxford and Cambridge	81
Public School life. Life at the ancient universities. The Boat Race.
32. Railway Travel in England.	83
Customs examination. What a train consists of. How to send on luggage. Booking. Expressions needed for travelling, etc.
33. Hotels and Cafés	86
Booking a room. The hotel bill. Restaurants. Boarding houses. A letter to a seaside landlady.
34. The City of London	89
A bus ride to the City. Its history, places of interest and government.
35. The Port of London	91
What London imports. A trip down the Thames.
36. London's Traffic	94
How London's traffic is controlled. The Underground. The effects of a thick fog. Going by bus.

X

Chapter	Page
37. The Press	96
A modern newspaper plant. A study of 'The Times'. The excitements of journalism. The principal English newspapers.
38. Animals	99
A description of the London Zoo and of wild animals. (For domestic animals see Chap. 14.)
39. Scotland Yard	101
How crime is detected. The 'Flying Squad'.
40. Parliament	104
The House of Lords. The House of Commons. Political parties in England. A general election. Cabinet ministers and government departments. How Parliament functions. Aristocracy (notes). The structure of society (notes).
41. Hobbies and Amusements	107
Carpentry, stamp-collecting, photography, indoor games, dancing, knitting etc.
42. Hunting and Racing	109
Fox-hunting, deer-stalking, steeplechase racing, the Derby. Betting. Greyhound racing. Motor racing.
43. Sport	112
Rambling, golf, tennis, winter-sports, gymnastics. A holiday at the seaside. Camping out.
44. Motoring.	114
How to get a driving-licence in England. Parts of a car. How to drive. An accident.
45. Aviation	117
Gliding. The Autogiro. Flying from London to Paris, from Croydon to Capetown. An adventure in the air.
46. Trade	120
Importing and exporting. A factory. Quoting prices. Wholesale and retail dealers. Factory and office employees.
47. Trades and Professions	122
The different kinds of workers. A ship's crew. (For factory and office workers see Chap. 46, and for the ranks in the Army and Navy see Chap. 54. The workers employed in building a house will be found in Chapter 50.)

Chapter	Page
48. Business Correspondence	126
Simple business letters. Useful business formulas. Seeking a situation. A letter of application.
49. British Industries	128
Coal, steel, textiles etc. Industrial centres.
50. Building	131
How a house is built.
51. Electricity	133
Production, distribution and uses of electricity. Wireless. Radio. The B. B. C.
52. Ships	135
How a ship is built and launched. A shipwreck. Kinds of ships. Some nautical expressions.
53. Law	138
Different kinds of lawyers and of law cases. A civil suit. A criminal trial. The police court. Making a will.
54. Army, Navy and Air Force	140
Ranks in the Army and Navy. A soldier's kit. Modern warfare. The League of Nations.
55. Writers of our Time	143
A short survey of modern English and American Literature.
56. New York and Washington	146
Description of New York. Congress. Roosevelt's policy. A note on American English.
Appendix	151
Everyday Expressions	151
English Weights and Measures	171
Vocabulary	172