

CONTENTS

The Authors	7
Introduction: The Democracy Seminars and Beyond – Elżbieta Matynia	11
Prologue: Early Discussions in Warsaw, Budapest, New York 1986-1989	19
I. Continuity and Change
The Future of Central Europe's Civil Society Jan Urban	33
Eastern Europe: An Uneasy Space for Liberal Democracy Calin Anastasiu	37
The Ancien Regime in Serbia Ivan Vejvoda	40
Between Democracy and Democratization Pavel Campeanu	51
The Velvet Restoration Adam Michnik	56
Between Reform and Revolution: Three Hypotheses about the Nature of the Regime Change János Kis	63
Animal Farm Scenarios: The Comeback of the Former Communists, and Why There is No Reason to Worry Miklós Haraszti	82
Transition or Tragedy? Dimitr Dimitrov	89
Limits and Dilemmas of the Transition Andrei Marga	92
II. Constituting Democracy
The Devil of Our Times Adam Michnik	103
The Blindness of the Deaf Jan Urban	108
Human Rights and the Post-Communist Order: The Case of Poland Ewa Łętowska	112
Patterns of Constitutional Evolution and Change in Eastern Europe Ulrich Preuss	116
Seediness Alex Grigorievs	128
Could Russia Become a State of Law? Thoughts on the Place of Law in the Russian Consciousness Anatolii Tikholaz	131