

CONTENTS

List of Contributors xi

Introduction: The Past and Future of Public History—Developments and Challenges 1
JAMES B. GARDNER AND PAULA HAMILTON

PART I. THE CHANGING PUBLIC HISTORY LANDSCAPE

1. Internationalizing Public History 25
SERGE NOIRET AND THOMAS CAUVIN

2. Complexity and Collaboration: Doing Public History in Digital Environments 44
SHARON M. LEON

PART II. DOING PUBLIC HISTORY

3. Decentralizing Culture: Public History and Communities 69
BARBARA FRANCO

4. Trading Zones: Collaborative Ventures in Disability History 87
JOCELYN DODD, CERI JONES, AND RICHARD SANDELL

5. Popular Understandings of the Past: Interpreting History through Graphic Novels 105
KEES RIBBENS

6. The Business of History: Customers, Professionals, and Money 120
BRIAN W. MARTIN

PART III. PUSHING THE BOUNDARIES OF PUBLIC HISTORY

7. Public Histories for Human Rights: Sites of Conscience and the Guantánamo Public Memory Project
LIZ ŠEVČENKO

141
8. Archives for Justice, Archives of Justice
TRUDY HUSKAMP PETERSON

163
9. Sexuality and the Cities: Interdisciplinarity and the Politics of Queer Public History
KEVIN P. MURPHY, JENNIFER L. PIERCE, AND ALEX URQUHART

178
10. Public History and the Environment
JEFFREY K. STINE

190
11. From Environmental Liability to Community Asset: Public History, Communities, and Environmental Reclamation
T. ALLAN COMP

207
12. Between Pastness and Presentism: Public History and Local Food Activism
CATHY STANTON

217

PART IV. PUBLIC HISTORY AND THE STATE

13. Historians and Public History in the UN System
LISA SINGLETON

239
14. Good Enough for Government Work
ARNITA JONES

256
15. Shaping Institutional Memory: Public History on Capitol Hill
DONALD A. RITCHIE

277
16. History, Heritage, and the Representation of Ethnic Diversity: Cultural Tourism in China
JONATHAN SWEET AND FENGQI QIAN

292
17. Public History, Cultural Institutions, and National Identity: Dialogues about Difference
JANNELLE WARREN-FINDLEY

309

PART V. NARRATIVE AND VOICE IN PUBLIC HISTORY

18. History Museums and Identity: Finding “Them,” “Me,” and “Us” in the Gallery 327
BENJAMIN FILENE
19. National Museums, National Narratives, and Identity Politics 349
CRISTINA LLERAS
20. The Personalization of Loss in Memorial Museums 369
PAUL WILLIAMS
21. The Magna Carta: 800 Years of Public History 387
GRAHAM SMITH AND ANNA GREEN
22. Public History as a Social Form of Knowledge 403
HILDA KEAN
23. Brownfield Public History: Arts and Heritage in the Aftermath of Deindustrialization 423
STEVEN HIGH

PART VI. DIFFICULT PUBLIC HISTORY

24. Politics and Memory: How Germans Face Their Past 447
UDO GÖßWALD
25. The Legacy of Collecting: Colonial Collecting in the Belgian
Congo and the Duty of Unveiling Provenance 460
BORIS WASTIAU
26. Slavery Tourism: Representing a Difficult History in Ghana 479
BAYO HOLSEY
27. How You Understand Your Story: The Survival Story within Cambodian American Genocide Communities 492
SOCHEATA POEUV
28. In the Service of the State: Monuments and Memorials in Indonesia 505
PAUL ASHTON, KRESNO BRAHMANTYO, AND JAYA KEANEY

Index 521