

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction 1

I SUBSTANTIVE SOCIAL RESEARCH

- 1 On Unemployment 33
Response to Deprivation 33
- 2 On Communication 42
Audience Research 42
- 3 On Consumer Behavior 53
The Analysis of Consumer Actions 53
- 4 On Voting 70
Political Perception 70
- 5 On the Academic Mind 88
Social Scientists and Recent Threats to Academic Freedom 88

II METHODOLOGY OF SOCIAL RESEARCH

- 6 Observing 109
The Controversy over Detailed Interviews: An Offer for Negotiation 109
Problems of Survey Analysis 130
The Use of Panels in Social Research 147
- 7 Classifying and Building Typologies 158
Some Remarks on Typological Procedures in Social Research 158
A Digression on Disposition Concepts 168
- 8 Analyzing the Relations between Variables 172
On the Relation between Individual and Collective Properties 172

	Mutual Relations over Time of Two Attributes: A Review and Integration of Various Approaches	189
9	Qualitative Analysis	210
	Some Functions of Qualitative Analysis in Social Research	210
10	Macrosociology	218
	Macrosociology	218
11	The Relevance of Methodology	236
	Methodological Problems in Empirical Social Research	236
 III HISTORY AND SOCIOLOGY OF SOCIAL RESEARCH
12	Sociology of Social Research	257
	The Sociology of Empirical Social Research	257
13	History of Social Research	275
	Notes on the History of Quantification in Sociology: Trends, Sources, and Problems	275
	Max Weber and Empirical Social Research	283
	 The Writings of Paul F. Lazarsfeld	 299
	Name and Title Index	323
	Subject Index	327