

Contents

PART I Technical and Clinical Aspects of Breast Diagnosis

1. The Normal Breast: Structure, Function, and Epidemiology, 3
Deborah E. Powell
2. Mammography for Asymptomatic and Symptomatic Patients, 21
Carol B. Stelling
3. Ancillary Breast Imaging Modalities, 46
Karen S. Baker
4. Breast Self-Examination and Clinician Breast Examination, 71
Daniel E. Kenady
5. The Role of the Surgeon in Breast Disease Diagnosis, 76
Patrick C. McGrath
6. Breast Cytology: Fine-Needle Aspiration and Other Techniques, 86
Diane D. Davey
7. Preoperative Mammographic Localization of Nonpalpable Breast Lesions, 118
Carol B. Stelling
8. Ancillary Techniques for Breast Biopsy Specimens, 145
Michael L. Cibull
C. Darrell Jennings

PART II Atlas of Breast Diseases

9. Circumscribed Breast Masses, 159
Carol B. Stelling
Deborah E. Powell
10. Papillary Lesions and Radial Scars, 192
Carol B. Stelling
Deborah E. Powell
11. Fibrocystic Breast Changes, 230
Deborah E. Powell
Carol B. Stelling
12. Carcinoma of the Breast, 272
Deborah E. Powell
Carol B. Stelling
13. Stromal, Vascular, Hematolymphoid, and Metastatic Breast Lesions, 344
Carol B. Stelling
Deborah E. Powell
14. Inflammatory, Granulomatous and Male Breast Disorders, 394
Carol B. Stelling
Deborah E. Powell