

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Preface | 1 |
| Globalization and Development Studies: Introducing the Challenges Frans J. Schuurman | 3 |
| PART I: THE CHALLENGES AND THEIR LIMITS | |
| Introduction to Part I Frans J. Schuurman | 17 |
| Globalization after Modernization: a New Paradigm for Development Studies Martin Albrow | 21 |
| Globalization: a Challenge to the Social Sciences Arie de Ruijter | 31 |
| Vicious and Benign Universalism John Tomlinson | 45 |
| The Nation-State, Emancipatory Spaces and Development Studies in the Global Era Frans J. Schuurman | 61 |
| PART II: GLOBALIZATION AND CENTRAL ISSUES IN DEVELOPMENT STUDIES | |
| Introduction to the Contributions in Part II Detlev Haude and Frans Schuurman | 79 |
| Globalization and Human Rights: Some Developmental Reflections Reinhart Kössler | 83 |
| Multinationals and Development: Revisiting the Debate Kristoffel Lieten | 99 |

| | |
|--|------------|
| Globalization, Sustainable Development, and Environment: a Balancing Act | 117 |
| M.A. Mohamed Salih | |
| Feminist Sightings of Global Restructuring: Conceptualizations and Reconceptualizations | 135 |
| Marianne H. Marchand and Anne Sisson Runyan | |
| Globalization and Gender: Beyond Dichotomies | 153 |
| Tine Davids and Francien van Driel | |
| Cities and the Globalization of Urban Development Policy | 177 |
| Ton van Naerssen | |
| Notes on Contributors | 197 |
| Index | 201 |