

Detailed Contents

Table of Cases	xviii
Table of Statutes	xxxii
Table of Statutory Instruments	xxxvii
Table of European and International Legislation	xxxviii
1 Ethics and Medical Law	1
1 What is medical law?	1
2 The link between law and ethics	3
3 The nature of illness	4
4 The scope of medicine	7
5 Health statistics	12
6 General ethical principles	12
7 The notion of rights	19
8 Patients' obligations	23
9 Principlism	24
10 Hermeneutics	31
11 Casuistry	31
12 Feminist medical ethics	31
13 Care ethics	33
14 Vulnerability	35
15 Virtue ethics	36
16 Communitarian ethics	37
17 Theology	38
18 Relativism	40
19 Personhood	41
20 Conclusion	44
QUESTIONS	44
FURTHER READING	45
2 The Structure of the National Health Service and the Rationing of Healthcare Resources	47
1 What are the principles underpinning the NHS?	48
2 The structure of the NHS	53
3 Policymaking and central planning in the NHS	53
4 Quality control: regulation and inspection	55
5 Commissioning and planning services	56

6	Charging: community versus health care	57
7	The provision of services	58
8	Structural issues	59
9	Rationing	63
10	Health inequalities	92
11	The General Medical Council	93
12	Public health: infectious diseases	94
13	Public health: prevention	97
14	Conclusion	99
	QUESTIONS	99
	FURTHER READING	100
3	Medical Negligence	103
1	The law and medical malpractice: an overview	104
2	Criminal law	105
3	The law of negligence	106
4	The law of contract	133
5	Why do people sue?	133
6	Medical malpractice litigation in practice	134
7	Costs	134
8	Criticisms of the current legal position	135
9	Learning lessons	138
10	The NHS Redress Act 2006	139
11	No fault	141
12	Matters other than compensation	144
13	Professional regulation	145
14	Conclusion	146
	QUESTIONS	146
	FURTHER READING	147
4	Consent to Treatment	149
1	The consequences of treatment without consent	150
2	Criminal law and the non-consenting patient	150
3	The law of tort and the non-consenting patient	152
4	Who must provide the consent?	153
5	What is consent?	155
6	The capacity test	155
7	The form of the consent	167
8	The patient with capacity who does not consent	168
9	The treatment of patients lacking capacity	171
10	The best interests of the person	176
11	Consent of children	187
12	Treatment that cannot be consented to	194

13	Actions in negligence based on a failure to provide sufficient information	195
14	Ethics and autonomy	202
15	The United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities	208
16	Balancing protection and autonomy	209
17	Relational autonomy	210
18	Autonomy in practice	212
19	Nudging	212
20	Ethics and best interests	213
21	Ethical issues surrounding advance directives	216
22	Autonomy and the medical professional–patient relationship	218
23	The ethics of child treatment	219
24	Conclusion	222
	QUESTIONS	223
	FURTHER READING	225

5 Confidentiality 228

1	The legal basis of confidentiality	230
2	Denying breach of confidentiality	241
3	Justifying breach of confidence	245
4	The Data Protection Act 1998	256
5	Problem issues	258
6	Legal remedies in confidentiality cases	266
7	Access to information	266
8	The ethical issues	270
9	Informational privacy	273
10	Conclusion	275
	QUESTIONS	275
	FURTHER READING	276

6 Contraception, Abortion, and Pregnancy 278

1	Contraception: its use and function	278
2	The availability of contraception	280
3	Teenage pregnancy rates	281
4	Abortion and contraception	282
5	Contraception and children	284
6	Contraception, sterilization, and those lacking capacity	285
7	Tort liability and contraception	292
8	Ethical issues concerning contraception	297
9	An introduction to abortion	299
10	Abortion: the law	300
11	Conscientious objection	311

12	Actions to prevent abortion	314
13	Abortion and adults lacking capacity	315
14	Abortion and minors	317
15	A right to abortion	318
16	Discussion of abortion law in the UK	320
17	Abortion: the reality	322
18	The legal status of the foetus	324
19	Abortion ethics	327
20	Particularly controversial abortions	352
21	Pregnancy and childbirth	356
22	Regulating pregnant women	358
23	Caesarean section cases	360
24	Conclusions	363
	QUESTIONS	364
	FURTHER READING	365
7	Reproduction	368
1	Infertility	369
2	The concept of reproductive autonomy	370
3	Criticisms of assisted reproduction	375
4	The different techniques	378
5	Regulation	380
6	Criticisms of the HFEA	386
7	Access to treatment	388
8	Parentage	394
9	Gamete donation: anonymity	398
10	Payment for gamete donation	401
11	Surrogacy	401
12	Preimplantation genetic screening	407
13	Cloning	414
14	Therapeutic cloning and embryo research	419
15	Genetic enhancement and eugenics	424
16	Conclusion	427
	QUESTIONS	428
	FURTHER READING	430
8	Organ Donation and the Ownership of Body Parts	432
1	The Human Tissue Act 2004	432
2	Comments on the Human Tissue Act 2004	445
3	Transplanting of organs	451
4	Liability for mishaps from organ transplant	464
5	The lack of organs	464

6	The wishes of relatives	470
7	Xenotransplantation	471
8	Selling organs	472
9	Face transplants	478
10	The living body as property	479
11	Intellectual property	488
12	Conclusion	488
	QUESTIONS	488
	FURTHER READING	490
9	Dying and Death	493
1	What is death?	495
2	The law and the end of life	500
3	Applying the law in difficult cases	522
4	Alleged inconsistency in the present law	535
5	Ethical issues: euthanasia	541
6	Patients lacking capacity: ethical issues	569
7	Refusal of treatment: ethical issues	571
8	Palliative care and hospices	572
9	Reform of the law	575
10	Conclusion	577
	QUESTIONS	578
	FURTHER READING	581
10	Mental Health Law	585
1	Statistics on mental health	586
2	The Mental Health Act 1983	587
3	Informal treatment	600
4	Codes of practice	601
5	The reforms to the law under the 2007 Act	602
6	Protection from abuse	604
7	Human rights	604
8	Problems in mental health practice	607
9	Critics of mental health	611
10	Dangerousness	613
11	Paternalism as the ground for detention?	615
12	Conclusion	616
	QUESTIONS	617
	FURTHER READING	617
	Note on the Bibliography	619
	Index	621