

CONTENTS

Table of Cases	xi
INTRODUCTION	1
1 CONSTITUTIONS AND CONSTITUTIONALISM	12
1 Warning, Danger! Definitions	13
2 Constitutional Fabric	29
3 Social Organization and Constitutional Order	36
4 Pre-commitment: Ulysses Binds Himself to the Mast	41
5 Formalizing Pre-commitment: Entrenchment and Amendment Rules	44
6 Imperfect Constitutions and Threats to Constitutionalism	51
2 CONDITIONS FOR A CONSTITUTION	55
1 Constituent Power	55
2 Constitutional Identity	63
3 What Precedes and What Follows the Constitution? Order and Acceptance	68
3 DEMOCRACY, OR TAMING AN UNRULY FRIEND	87
1 The Sovereign Power of the People Meets Constitutionalism	87
2 From Sovereignty to Rule of the People	89
3 The Risks of People's Sovereign Power	94
4 Representative Government	99
5 Two Concepts of Democracy	103
6 Majority Rule	105
7 The Ghost of Popular Sovereignty	108
8 Constitutional Limits on Democracy: Counter-Majoritarian Measures	118
4 DANGEROUS LIAISONS: SEPARATION OF POWERS AND CHECKS AND BALANCES	127
1 Separation(s) of Power(s) and Tireless Balancing	128
2 From Contingencies to Constitutional Chicanery	139
3 The Judiciary as a Branch of Power	153
4 The Triumph of the Executive	158
5 Keeping Safe (?) Distance: Independent Agencies	159
6 Outsourcing Public Powers: The Problem with Private Interests	163
7 Separation of Powers as a Means to Preserve Freedom	166
5 FEDERALISM	169
1 What is Federalism?	169
2 Choosing Federalism	174

3	Federal Structures	178
4	Models of National (Federal)–State Relationship	190
5	Ethnic Federalism—Accommodating Diversity	205
6	Secession in a Federation	209
7	Federalism: A Tool of Liberty	212
6	PARLIAMENTARISM AND THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH	216
1	Of Parliaments and Parliamentarism	217
2	The Transformations of the Legislative Branch	219
3	The Structure and Operation of Parliament	227
4	Unicameral versus Bicameral Systems	248
5	Legislative Powers	256
7	THE EXECUTIVE POWER	267
1	Who or What Is the Executive?	267
2	The Nature of Executive Powers	281
3	On the Road to Executive Democracy	290
4	Limiting the Powers of the Executive from Within	297
8	THE RULE OF LAW AND ITS EXECUTORS	302
1	Rule by Man, Rule by Law, and the Origins of the Rule of Law State	302
2	What Does the Rule of Law Stand For?	308
3	The Darker Side	314
4	Enforcing the Law and the Administration of Justice	316
5	Infiltrating Life: Juridification and Judicialization of Politics	323
9	WHO GUARDS THE GUARDIANS? CONSTITUTIONAL ADJUDICATION	326
1	Introductory Considerations	326
2	Origins and Justifications of Constitutional Review	328
3	Models and Variations	337
4	Interpreting or Rewriting the Constitution?	341
5	Legitimacy: How Political is ‘Too Political’?	347
6	Judicial Activism, Deference, and Political Backlash	357
7	Taking the Constitution Away from the Courts?	366
10	RIGHTS	372
1	What Are Constitutional Rights About?	372
2	What Qualifies as a Fundamental Right? Defining and Listing	378
3	What Do Fundamental Rights Imply?	396
4	Reconciling Government with Freedom in Constitutionalism: Restrictions on Fundamental Rights	401
11	CONSTITUTIONS UNDER STRESS	416
1	Preliminaries and Antecedents: A Note on Dictators	416
2	Emergencies	419

3	Militant Democracy	433
4	Erosion of Constitutionalism: The Rise of the Preventive State	440
12	MULTI-LAYERED CONSTITUTIONALISM, GLOBALIZATION, AND THE REVIVAL OF THE NATION STATE	446
1	Multi-layered Constitutionalism: Origins and Dilemmas	446
2	Supra-national Constitutional Actors and Their Interactions	456
3	Weaving the Multi-layered Constitutional Web: Convergence Revisited	459
4	The Limits of Multi-layered Constitutionalism: Return to Sovereignty?	464
	Index	473