

Contents

List of contributors	vi
Introduction Manfred Nowak and Anne Charbord	1
1. Key trends in the fight against terrorism and key aspects of international human rights law Manfred Nowak and Anne Charbord	12
2. Impact of post-9/11 counter-terrorism measures on all human rights Martin Scheinin	92
3. New counter-terrorism measures: Continuing challenges for human rights Ben Emmerson QC	125
4. The complexity and challenges of addressing the conditions conducive to terrorism Fionnuala Ní Aoláin	166
5. One step forward, two steps back: The Security Council, 'foreign terrorist fighters', and human rights Lisa Ginsborg	195
6. Acting ethically in the shadows: Intelligence gathering and human rights Richard Barrett and Tom Parker	236
7. The preventive criminal justice strategy against terrorism and its human rights implications Ulrich Garms	265
8. Questions of accountability in countering terrorism Lisa N. Oldring	300
Bibliography	338
Index	351