

---

CONTENTS

---

Preface .....	v
1. Introduction .....	1
I. Removing the Blindfold .....	5
II. Scope of the Argument.....	9
III. Recovering Montesquieu.....	10
2. The Adjudication of Constitutional Rights .....	13
I. Constitutional Rights and Ordinary Legal Rights .....	14
II. Proportionality in Practice.....	15
III. Proportionality in the US? .....	20
IV. Absolute and Prima Facie Rights.....	24
V. Rights, Proportionality and Utilitarianism .....	27
VI. Rights as Interests .....	27
VII. Moral and Empirical Reasoning .....	30
VIII. Other Adjudicative Methods.....	35
IX. Conclusion.....	39
3. Are Rights Trumps? .....	40
I. The Shielded-Interest Theory .....	41
II. The Filtered-Preference Theory.....	44
III. Constitutional Rights and Statistics .....	47
IV. Revision of the Filtered-Preference Theory .....	51
4. Judicial Capacity and Empirical Research .....	56
I. Empirical Research and the Origins of Proportionality.....	57
II. Empirical Evidence in the US Supreme Court.....	62
III. Adjudicative Facts and Legislative Facts.....	63
IV. Finding Legislative Facts .....	65
V. The Courts and Social Science.....	68
VI. Case Studies .....	73
VII. Conclusion.....	88
5. Comparative Analysis of Institutional Capacities .....	90
I. The Basic Structure of Judicial Reasoning .....	90
II. The Basic Structure of Legislative Reasoning .....	96
III. Capacity for Empirical Reasoning.....	98

IV.	Capacity for Moral Reasoning .....	104
V.	The Tyranny of the Majority? .....	115
VI.	Capacity to Protect Minorities.....	120
VII.	An Historical Perspective .....	126
VIII.	Conclusion.....	128
6.	The Problem of Entrenchment .....	131
I.	Legal Change and the Rule of Law .....	132
II.	Rawls and the Perpetual Constitution.....	133
III.	The Rarity of Constitutional Amendment.....	140
IV.	The Legislative-Judicial Method of Reversing Nullification Decisions.....	143
V.	Conclusion.....	145
7.	Judicial Review and Constitutional Design .....	147
I.	The American and Kelsenian Models.....	148
II.	Designing a Constitutional Court .....	151
III.	Council of Revision .....	162
IV.	Does the Legislature Need a Check? .....	163
V.	Deference .....	165
VI.	Conclusion.....	165
	Index .....	167