

spiritual music of India

The recording Maha Rudra Yagya Meditation contains old Vedic mantras sung by Indian pandits. The recording was made during the spiritual ceremony of Maha Rudra Yagya, dedicated to Lord Shiva, held from the 15th of January to the 23rd of January 1995 in Rajasthan. The unique ceremony, which very seldom takes place and depends on the presence of a spiritual master was prepared and led by Paramhans Swami Maheshwarananda. It was organized for peace, harmony and happiness for the whole world and for the purification of the place where the corner-stone for a new spiritual centre – ashram – was to be laid.
