

Contents

List of tables

List of figures

About the authors

Preface

PART I: GLOBALIZATION AND MODERNITY

1 Latin America transformed: globalization and neoliberalism

Robert N. Gwynne, Cristóbal Kay

Unravelling the concept of globalization in Latin America

Globalization and the contemporary relevance of structuralism and dependency theories

Globalization in the neoliberal era

Social bases of neoliberalism

Conclusion: a paradigm shift in theory and policy

2 Modernity and identity: cultural change in Latin America

Jorge Larraín

Introduction

The Latin American trajectory to modernity

Some specific elements of Latin American modernity and culture

Conclusion

3 Structural reform in South America and Mexico: Economic and Regional Perspectives

Robert N. Gwynne

Historical contexts

Economic policy change

Impacts and problems of neoliberal reform

Neoliberalism and economic spaces

Conclusion

xi

xiii

xv

xix

I

3

5

11

14

17

19

22

22

24

32

38

151

39

43

46

50

57

63

4 Globalization, neoliberalism and economic change in Central America and the Caribbean

Thomas Klak

A region of small and dependent states	69
Development policies prior to neoliberalism	73
The debt crisis and the neoliberal remedy	76
The meaning and impacts of globalization	77
The neoliberal development model	80
Cuba: island socialism amid global capitalism	84
Migration and transnationalism	87
Regional trading blocs	87
The growing drug economy	90
Conclusion	91

5 The urban revolution

Alan Gilbert

Urban growth during the twentieth century	94
Explanations for urban growth	95
Rural–urban migration	98
The geography of urban growth under the new economic model	101
The urbanization of poverty	102
Differential patterns of urban change	104
An unpredictable future	114

6 The political economy of sustainable development

Warwick E. Murray and Eduardo Silva

Natural resource use – economy or environment?	118
Political-economic issues and implications	122
Whose sustainability? The Chilean fruit export boom	124
Environmental issues and implications	128
The politics of natural resource extraction	133
Conclusion	135

PART 2: POLITICAL TRANSFORMATIONS

7 Authoritarianism, democracy and development

Eduardo Silva

Political economy and the state	141
Democracy, authoritarianism and development	143
Conclusion	154

8 The new political order: towards technocratic democracies?

Patricio Silva

Neoliberalism, modernization and democracy	157
The depoliticization of society	159
Political legitimation and consumerism	162
The technocratization of policy-making	164

Disenchantment	166
The future of democracy in Latin America	168

PART 3: SPACE, SOCIETY AND LIVELIHOODS 171

9 Livelihood transitions, place transformations: grounding globalization and modernity 173

Anthony Bebbington
Conceptualizing livelihoods in Latin America	174
Livelihoods since neoliberalism	181
Livelihood politics	183
Livelihoods, NGOs and development	185
Globalization and livelihoods in Latin America	188
Conclusion	191

10 Civil society, grassroots politics and livelihoods 193

Sarah A. Radcliffe
Civil society in Latin America: social difference, rights and the state	194
Civil society mobilization in the 1970s and 1980s	196
Civil society and the transition to democracy	202
Civil society and social difference	202
Conclusion	207

11 Urban livelihoods, employment and gender 210

Sylvia Chant
Household livelihoods	210
Urban employment	215
Gender and the urban labour market	221
Conclusion	228

12 Rural livelihoods and peasant futures 232

Cristóbal Kay
The lost promise of agrarian reform	232
Globalization, neoliberalism and agriculture	234
Peasant futures: a permanent semi-proletariat?	240
The new peasant movement: indigenous and environmental dimensions	246
Conclusion	249

PART 4: LATIN AMERICAN FUTURES 251

13 The alternatives to neoliberalism 253

Robert N. Gwynne and Cristóbal Kay
The neoliberal model evaluated	253
Alternatives to neoliberalism	259

Bibliography 268

Index 311