
CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	VII
Abbreviations	VIII
Introduction	1
1 Hu Shih, Chou Tso-jen, Ch'en Tu-hsiu and the Beginning of Modern Chinese Literary Criticism	9
2 Kuo Mo-jo and his Development from Aesthetico-impressionist to Proletarian Criticism	28
3 Ch'eng Fang-wu and his Development from Socio-aesthetic to "Total Criticism"	63
4 Yü Ta-fu and his Panaesthetic Criticism	104
5 Teng Chung-hsia, Yün Tai-ying, Hsiao Ch'u-nü and the Beginning of Concerned Literary Criticism	129
6 Chiang Kuang-tz'u's Theory of Revolutionary Literature	142
7 Ch'ien Hsing-ts'un's Theory of Proletarian Realism and "Literature of Power"	166
8 Mao Tun's Struggle for a Realistic and Marxist Theory of Literature	191
9 Ch'ü Ch'iu-pai's Russian Example and the Concept of Reality in Literature and Art	214
10 Lu Hsün's Contribution to the History of Modern Chinese Literary Criticism and his Struggle for a United Marxist Front	236
11 Liang Shih-ch'iu and Chinese New Humanism	285
12 Feng Nai-ch'ao, Li Ch'u-li and their Leftist Theory of Art and Literature	308
Epilogue	321
Selected Bibliography	327
Index	337