

Brief contents

Detailed contents	vi
Boxes, figures, web pointers and tables	xi
Preface	xvii

Part I THE SCOPE OF SURVEY RESEARCH

1 The nature of surveys	3
2 Theory and social research	9
3 Formulating and clarifying research questions	21

Part II COLLECTING SURVEY DATA

4 Developing indicators for concepts	41
5 Ethics and data collection	55
6 Finding a sample	66
7 Constructing questionnaires	93
8 Administering questionnaires	121

Part III SETTING UP THE DATA FOR ANALYSIS

9 Coding	147
10 Preparing variables for analysis	161
11 Building scales	179

Part IV ANALYSING SURVEY DATA

12 Overview of analysis	203
13 Univariate analysis	212
14 Bivariate analysis: nominal and ordinal variables	241
15 Bivariate analysis for interval-level variables	270
16 Elaborating bivariate relationships	295
17 Multivariate analysis	316
18 Putting it into practice: a research example	336

Glossary	352
Bibliography	365
Index	374

Detailed contents	vi
Boxes, figures, web pointers and tables	xi
Preface	xvii
Part I THE SCOPE OF SURVEY RESEARCH
1 The nature of surveys	3
2 Theory and social research	9
3 Formulating and clarifying research questions	21
Part II COLLECTING SURVEY DATA
4 Developing indicators for concepts	41
5 Ethics and data collection	55
6 Finding a sample	66
7 Constructing questionnaires	93
8 Administering questionnaires	121
Part III SETTING UP THE DATA FOR ANALYSIS
9 Coding	147
10 Preparing variables for analysis	161
11 Building scales	179
Part IV ANALYSING SURVEY DATA
12 Overview of analysis	203
13 Univariate analysis	212
14 Bivariate analysis: nominal and ordinal variables	241
15 Bivariate analysis for interval-level variables	270
16 Elaborating bivariate relationships	295
17 Multivariate analysis	316
18 Putting it into practice: a research example	336
Glossary	352
Bibliography	365
Index	374