

Contents

	Preface	5
	Introduction	6
	• Writing classroom tests	6
	• Two basic principles	6
	• Words of caution	7
	• Discussion	8
1	Reasons for Testing	9
	• Finding out about progress	9
	• Encouraging students	10
	• Finding out about learning difficulties	11
	• Finding out about achievement	13
	• Placing students	15
	• Selecting students	16
	• Finding out about proficiency	17
	• Activities	18
	• Discussion	22
2	Writing and Using Tests	23
	• Should we write our own tests?	23
	• How often should students be tested?	23
	• Drawing up a test framework	25
	• Task-based testing	28
	• Objective and subjective testing	30
	• Activities	33
	• Discussion	36
3	Testing Listening Skills	37
	• Distinguishing between sounds	37
	• Dictation	39
	• Characteristics of the spoken language	41
	• Implications for listening tests	43
	• Short statements and conversations	45
	• Longer conversations and talks	51
	• Testing listening with other skills	54
	• Activities	55
	• Discussion	58

4	Testing Speaking Skills	59
	● Pronunciation	59
	● Using pictures	61
	● Oral interviews	65
	● Grading oral ability	67
	● Using a language laboratory	71
	● Testing speaking with other skills	76
	● Activities	76
	● Discussion	77
5	Testing Reading Skills	79
	● Vocabulary	79
	● Reading tests: multiple-choice items	81
	● Reading tests: true/false items	84
	● Reading tests: completion	86
	● Reading tests: cloze	89
	● Testing reading with other skills	92
	● Activities	92
	● Discussion	95
6	Testing Writing Skills	96
	● Grammar and structure	96
	● Controlled writing	101
	● Free writing	105
	● Using pictures for writing	107
	● Marking compositions	108
	● Testing writing with other skills	113
	● Activities	113
	● Discussion	115
7	Continuous assessment	116
	● General	116
	● Oral activities: projects and role play	117
	● Writing: editing and group activities	119
	● Using questions for continuous assessment	120
	● Combining methods	121
	● Student self-evaluation	122
	● Activities	125
	● Discussion	125
	Suggestions for further reading	126
	Index	127