

Contents

Foreword	6
Automobile collection of the National Technical Museum (Petr Kožíšek)	9
Automobiles in the Czech Lands	12
On race tracks	66
History of the railway collections of NTM (Pavel Bek)	75
Fire-fighting technology in the collections of the National Technical Museum (Petr Kožíšek)	89
The story of motorcycles in the Czech Lands (Arnošt Nezmeškal)	101
History of motorcycles in the NTM collections	101
“Laurin & Klement is the best make in the world”	103
“Nothing is more reliable than a Walter engine”	103
The first motorcycles of the independent republic	106
“I can laugh because I ride on an Indian motorcycle.”	106
“Jawa – quality – speed – joy”	107
Secret development of motorcycles under the occupation Czechoslovakia – the largest motorcycle manufacturer in the world	108 109
Motorcycle sport	110
“Of course, we are not going to enter Socialism on a motorcycle”	110
History of the aeronautical collections (Michal Plavec)	175
Lighter-than-air sailing or flying?	177
The thorny path to heavier-than-air aircraft	182
Aviation during the Great War	195
The birth of Czechoslovakian aviation	208
Airliners	228

Aircraft production under the Protectorate	228
The difficult path to jet aircraft and into space	229
The bicycle (not only) in the Czech Lands (Jan Králík)	249
Karl Drais – the father of the velocipede	249
A lie has no wheels	251
Let there be pedals	254
The steel steed	256
Get going on Kohout bicycles!	257
Tricycles	263
Safety bicycles	264
The Vondřich bicycle collection	268
Shipping collection of the National Technical Museum (Petr Kožíšek)	343
River navigation in the Czech Lands until the beginning of the 19 th century	343
The beginnings of steam navigation	345
The development of river freight transport	348
Upgrading of waterways	350
War fleet	352
Recreational craft	354
To the New World	356
Czechoslovakian river cargo transport	359
Shipbuilding in the Czech Lands	360
Czechoslovakian marine navigation	362
Notes	366
References	373
List of exhibits	378