

Contents

	Preface	5
1	Know yourself	7
	● your language ability	7
	● your talents	9
	● your specialist knowledge	11
	● your general knowledge	13
	● your teaching skills	14
	● your attitude to discipline	17
	● opportunities for self-development	18
2	Know your school	19
	● the 'philosophy' of the school	19
	● other teachers' attitudes	20
	● the extent of your responsibilities	21
	● the general pattern of staff behaviour	23
3	Know your students	25
	● their names	25
	● their backgrounds	27
	● their interests	27
	● their previous experience of learning English	29
	● their attitudes to English	30
	● keeping records	32
4	An encouraging class atmosphere	34
	● giving a sense of purpose to the class	34
	● ensuring that English is spoken	36
	● balancing fluency and accuracy	37
	● using appropriate language	38
	● giving encouragement	40
	● involving all the students	40
	● the place of examinations and tests	43
	● extra-curricular activities	44

5	The classroom itself	46
	● the lightness/brightness	47
	● the temperature and fresh air	47
	● the acoustics	47
	● the lines of vision	48
	● the layout of the desks/tables	49
	● the possibility of moving desks/tables	51
	● the other furniture	53
	● the facilities for displaying pictures/charts	54
	● exploiting opportunities for communicative language use	55
6	Be prepared	58
	● a scheme of work	58
	● lesson plans	61
	● timing of lessons	66
	● coping with emergencies	68
7	Lesson routines	69
	● general classroom behaviour	69
	● beginning a lesson	73
	● changes of activity	74
	● forming pairs/groups	76
	● ending a lesson	78
8	Using audio-visual aids	80
	● the black/white board	81
	● the overhead projector	81
	● the audio cassette/tape recorder	83
	● choosing audio recordings	84
	● the language laboratory	85
	● other audio systems	86
	● making audio recordings	86
	● the slide projector	88
	● the video recorder	89
	● other English speakers	90
	● your 'Resources Box'	90
9	Reducing the teacher's workload	92
	● collaboration	92
	● marking in class	93
	● using pair and group work	94
	● limiting activities	94
	● prioritising your work	95
	Suggestions for further reading	96