

Contents

Preface xi

Introducing language

- 1 How what works? 1
- 2 How to treat body language 5
- 3 How we use the 'edges' of language 11

Spoken language

- 4 How we make speech sounds: phase 1 18
- 5 How we make speech sounds: phase 2 25
- 6 How we transmit sounds 32
- 7 How we hear speech sounds 39
- 8 How we perceive speech 44
- 9 How we describe speech sounds 51
- 10 How we describe consonants and vowels 58
- 11 How we organize the sounds of speech 66
- 12 How we use tone of voice 73
- 13 How children learn speech sounds: the first year 79
- 14 How children learn speech sounds: later years 85
- 15 How speech can go wrong 90

Written language

- 16 How we write 97
- 17 How we make writing systems: early times 105
- 18 How we make writing systems: modern times 113
- 19 How we read 121
- 20 How we write and spell 127
- 21 How we learn to read and write 133
- 22 How reading and writing can go wrong 140
- 23 How writing and speech differ 147
- 24 How the electronic medium differs 153

Sign language

- 25 How sign language works 159
- 26 How sign languages vary 164

Language structure

- 27 How the brain handles language 171
- 28 How to investigate language structure 180
- 29 How we mean 186
- 30 How we analyse meaning 192
- 31 How we learn vocabulary 198
- 32 How children learn to mean 204
- 33 How dictionaries work 210
- 34 How names work 217
- 35 How vocabulary grows 224
- 36 How we study grammar 230
- 37 How words work 236
- 38 How we classify words 242
- 39 How sentences work 247
- 40 How we learn grammar 254

Discourse

- 41 How we discourse 260
- 42 How conversation works 267
- 43 How we choose what to say 275
- 44 How we can't choose what to say 282

Dialects

- 45 How we know where someone is from 289
- 46 How to study dialects 295
- 47 How we know what someone is: the ethnic issue 302
- 48 How we know what someone is: the social issue 309
- 49 How we know who someone is: the stylistic issue 316
- 50 How we know where someone is: the contextual issue 322
- 51 How dialects differ from languages 329

Languages

- 52 How languages die 336
- 53 How languages are born 343
- 54 How language began 350
- 55 How language changes 357
- 56 How language families work 364
- 57 How the Indo-European family is organized 371
- 58 How other Eurasian families are organized – part one 380
- 59 How other Eurasian families are organized – part two 387
- 60 How the Indo-Pacific island families are organized 393
- 61 How African families are organized 397
- 62 How American families are organized 403

Multilingualism

- 63 How multilingualism works 409

- 64 How we cope with many languages: translate them 416
- 65 How we cope with many languages: supplement them 423
- 66 How we cope with many languages: learn them 430
- 67 How we cope with many languages: teach them 437
- 68 How we cope with many languages: plan them 444
- 69 How not to look after languages 451

Looking after language

- 70 How to look after languages: recognizing principles 457
- 71 How to look after languages: recognizing functions 462
- 72 How to look after languages: recognizing varieties 469
- 73 Teaching people to look after languages 477

Further Reading 485

Index 487