

Contents

1	Reading and readers	1
1.1	What is reading?	2
1.2	What readers bring to the text	3
1.3	Summary	11
2	Reading in language learning	13
2.1	The role of reading	13
2.2	Reading for language	14
2.3	Reading through language	16
2.4	Objectives in reading	19
2.5	Building objectives into the programme	21
2.6	Choosing texts	23
2.7	Case studies	28
2.8	Summary	33
3	Classroom approaches to reading	35
3.1	The three phases	37
3.2	Examples of the three phase approach	40
3.3	Summary	41
4	Comprehension aims and comprehension exercises	52
4.1	Example 1	52
4.2	Example 2	60
4.3	Example 3	63
4.4	A note on preliminary vocabulary exercises	71
4.5	Summary	72

5 Focus on text structure	74
5.1 What is text structure?	74
5.2 Cohesion	75
5.3 Coherence	82
5.4 Paragraphs in text development	89
5.5 Summary	91
6 Rapid reading	93
6.1 Improving reading speed	93
6.2 Skimming	96
6.3 Scanning	100
6.4 Scanning continuous prose	104
6.5 Summary	107
7 Reading for information	108
7.1 Read and match	109
7.2 Read and label	110
7.3 Read and complete	111
7.4 Read and draw	113
7.5 Jigsaw procedure	115
7.6 Enquiry strategy	119
7.7 Summary	124
Conclusion	125
References	127
Practical material	130
Useful addresses	133
Further reading	134
Index	136