

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgements	XIII
List of Figures, Table and Diagrams	XVI
List of Abbreviations	XX

1 Viking Age Cultural Contacts across the Baltic Sea: Behind the Interpretations	1
1.1 The Evolutionary Development Model	4
1.2 Eastern Baltic Archaeology and Concepts of Different Cultural Impacts	8
1.2.1 Germanic "Culture Carriers" and the Gothic Theory	9
1.2.2 Discussing Ethnicities within the Eastern Baltic	12
1.2.3 Eastern Influences – The Russian Question	13
1.2.4 Ideas of Scandinavian Impact	15
1.3 The Character of Communications across the Baltic Sea	17
1.3.1 Viking Age Trade in Northern Europe	18
1.3.2 Trade or War? The Character of Viking Age Overseas Interaction	21
1.3.3 Ethnic Factors in East-West Overseas Interaction	22
1.3.4 Interpreting the "Scandinavian" in Archaeological Evidence	24
1.4 Conclusions	28
2 Clan-Based Collectivists or Hierarchical Individualists? Late Prehistoric Societies in the Eastern Baltic	29
2.1 Finland	30
2.2 Estonia	34
2.2.1 From Egalitarian Society to Deep Social Stratification	38
2.2.2 Clan Societies with Corporate Power Structures	41
2.3 Latvia and Lithuania	45
2.3.1 Latgallian Society	49
2.3.2 The Livs	52
2.3.3 Couronia – The Land of Different Ethnicities	61
2.3.4 Military Societies in Late Prehistoric Latvia	68
2.3.5 Central Baltic Lands – Semgallia, Zhemaitia, and Selonja	71
2.3.6 The Rest of Inland Lithuania	75
2.4 Prussia	76

- 2.5 Comparing Social Systems in Different Regions in the Eastern Baltic 78
  - 2.5.1 Collectivism versus Individuality 79
  - 2.5.2 Weapons and Warriors 81
  - 2.5.3 Gender Relations 82
    - 2.5.3.1 Weapons in Female Graves 84
    - 2.5.3.2 Matrilineality Written in Legislation? 86
- 2.6 Conclusions 88

- 3 Making Trade: Cultural Landscapes and Communication Routes 91
  - 3.1 Maritime Landscapes in Countries around the Baltic 92
    - 3.1.1 Appearance of Harbour Sites 93
    - 3.1.2 Viking Age Maritime Landscapes 94
    - 3.1.3 Movement of Harbours in the 11th–12th Centuries 95
  - 3.2 Long-distance Trade Routes through the Eastern Baltic 97
    - 3.2.1 Austrvegr – The Way to the Volga 97
    - 3.2.2 The Daugava Way 101
    - 3.2.3 The “Route from the Varangians to the Greeks” 101
    - 3.2.4 Alternative Route through Pskov and Polotsk 102
    - 3.2.5 Alternative Route through Central Estonian River and Wetland Systems 104
    - 3.2.6 Routes along Latvian and Lithuanian Medium-sized Rivers 106
    - 3.2.7 The Amber Way and the Route along the Nemunas (Memel) River 106
  - 3.3 Travelling along Viking Age Routes 107
    - 3.3.1 Winter and Early Spring Routes 107
    - 3.3.2 Choosing the Means of Travel 109
    - 3.3.3 Near the Coast and at Open Sea 111
    - 3.3.4 On Inland Waters 114
  - 3.4 Points in Communication 117
    - 3.4.1 Early Urban Centres in the Eastern Baltic Lands 118
    - 3.4.2 Settlements with Hill-forts and Hill-forts as Trade Centres 121
    - 3.4.3 Harbour Sites and Possible Trade Centres 126
  - 3.5 Different Modes of Communication in the Eastern Baltic 130
    - 3.5.1 Culture Contacts and Colonisation 131
    - 3.5.2 Sphere of Shared Cultural Values in the Northern Half of the Baltic Sea 132
    - 3.5.3 The Middle Ground in the Southern Half of the Eastern Baltic 135
  - 3.6 Conclusions 138

- 4 The Historical Reality: Places, Place Names, and Ethnonyms in Written Sources 141
- 4.1 Estland(s) in the East 144
- 4.2 Pre-viking and Viking Age Eastern Baltic in Scandinavian Sources 152
- 4.2.1 Austrvegr and Garðaríki 155
- 4.2.2 Garðaríki, Hólmgarðaríki, Rússía 158
- 4.2.3 Viking Raids to Garðaríki 162
- 4.2.4 Saxo's Mythical World 165
- 4.2.5 Finland 167
- 4.2.6 Estland 171
- 4.2.7 Livland 174
- 4.2.8 Kúrland 177
- 4.2.9 Kúrland-Samland-Saaremaa 179
- 4.2.10 Sam-land and Sam-island 182
- 4.2.11 Eastern Baltic Places on Runic Stones 184
- 4.2.12 Different Place Names in Different Times 186
- 4.2.13 From Common Cultural Milieu to Religious Conflict 190
- 4.3 What Was Rus'? 192
- 4.3.1 Rus' as Ethnonym 192
- 4.3.2 First Mention of Rus' – The Story in the Annales Bertiniani 195
- 4.3.3 Rūs and Saqāliba 199
- 4.3.4 Islamic Sources and the Island of Rūs 201
- 4.3.5 The Legend of Three Brothers 206
- 4.3.6 Who Were the Chud'? 208
- 4.4 Languages and Personal Names 211
- 4.5 Conclusions 215
- 5 Networks Take Shape: Communication Through the Eastern Baltic 600–850 217
- 5.1 Cultural Situation around the Northern Part of the Baltic Sea 218
- 5.1.1 Swedish Warriors in Finland and Estonia? 218
- 5.1.2 Eastern Scandinavians' Cultural Impact to the Northern Baltic Shores 222
- 5.1.3 First Vikings at Salme 233
- 5.1.4 Ynglinga-Kings Adventuring in the East 240
- 5.2 Viking Colonies in the Southern Half of the Eastern Baltic 242
- 5.2.1 The First Viking Colony in the East – Grobiņa 243
- 5.2.2 Battles for Seeburg and Aputra 246

- 5.2.3 Commercial Nodal Point or Agrarian Colonisation? 249
- 5.2.4 Centres on the Amber Way 251
- 5.3 Pre-viking Period Hill-Forts and Trade Centres along the Eastern Baltic Coast 255
  - 5.3.1 Pre-viking Age Centres along the Estonian Coast and East of It 258
  - 5.3.2 Hill-Forts Indicating River-Routes 263
- 5.4 Conclusions 264

- 6 West Goes East: Viking Age Long-distance Communication and the Eastern Baltic 850-ca. 1000 266
  - 6.1 Viking Age Centres Connected with International Trade Routes in the Eastern Baltic 267
    - 6.1.1 Centres Connected with Trade in the Southern Half of the Eastern Baltic 268
  - 6.2 Cultural Landscapes along the Eastern Way 270
    - 6.2.1 Viking Age Centre at Iru 273
    - 6.2.2 Viking Age Centre in the Vicinity of Medieval Tallinn? 276
    - 6.2.3 The Surroundings of the Tallinn Bay in Written Sources 279
    - 6.2.4 Hill-Forts and Settlements in the Rest of Northern Estonian Coast 280
    - 6.2.5 Estonian Northern Coast in Saxo's Mythological Stories? 285
    - 6.2.6 Hill-Forts in West Estonia and Estonian islands 288
    - 6.2.7 Vikings both in Sweden and in the Eastern Coasts of the Baltic? 290
    - 6.2.8 Jewellery from Sýslar in Other Countries 297
    - 6.2.9 Adventures of a Norwegian Prince in Estland 300
    - 6.2.10 Inland Estonian Hill-Forts and Settlements 303
    - 6.2.11 Tableware Mirroring Cultural Contacts 308
  - 6.3 Cultural Landscapes in the Middle Part of the Eastern Baltic 310
    - 6.3.1 Hill-Forts and Settlements along the Daugava River 310
    - 6.3.2 Saxo's Hellespont 317
    - 6.3.3 Egil's Adventures in Couronia 321
    - 6.3.4 Changing Burial Customs in Couronia and in the Estuary of the Daugava River 325
  - 6.4 Coin Finds in the Eastern Baltic 327
    - 6.4.1 Dirhams 329
    - 6.4.2 Particularities of Dirham Finds 332
    - 6.4.3 The End of the Boom in the Eastern Trade 334
    - 6.4.4 Byzantine Coins in the Eastern Baltic 337

- 6.5 Interpreting Routes and Centres in the 9th–10th Centuries 339
- 6.5.1 Indicators of Trade Places 340
- 6.5.2 Distribution of Silver and Trade Wares 343
- 6.5.3 The Long 10th Century 344
- 6.6 Conclusions 346
- 7 Between Consolidating States: The Eastern Baltic Areas in the 11th and 12th Centuries 348
- 7.1 Interaction with Scandinavian Kingdoms 349
- 7.1.1 Swedish Struggle to Retain Its Dominion in the Eastern Baltic 349
- 7.1.1.1 The First Viking Expedition of Prince Ólaf 350
- 7.1.1.2 King Ólaf Skötkonung's Problems with His Overseas Countries 352
- 7.1.2 Austurveg-Men and Christians from the West 354
- 7.1.2.1 Pirates from Kúrland and Estland 357
- 7.1.2.2 Defeat in Blekinge 360
- 7.1.2.3 Attack on Sigtuna 362
- 7.1.3 The Beginning of Crusades 365
- 7.2 Northern Eastern Baltic in the Final Centuries of Prehistory 366
- 7.2.1 North Estonian Harbour Sites and Big Hill-forts 367
- 7.2.2 "Towns" and Christians on the Late Prehistoric Estonian Coast 370
- 7.2.3 The Prime of the Urnes Style 371
- 7.2.4 Political Centres in Inland Estonia 376
- 7.3 The East Attacks 379
- 7.3.1 Battles for Tartu 380
- 7.3.2 Clash between Russian Princes and Syslar 381
- 7.3.3 Other Fights between the Chud' and the Princedoms of Novgorod and Pskov 384
- 7.3.4 Relations between the Princedom of Novgorod, Karelia, and Finland 385
- 7.3.5 Polotsk and the Control of Russian Princes over the Daugava River 386
- 7.4 Landscapes around the Daugava Route 387
- 7.4.1 Latgallian Hill-forts and Princedoms 387
- 7.4.2 Settlements on the Lower Daugava River 389
- 7.4.3 Ethnic Diversity in the Cemeteries on the lower Daugava River 392

- 7.4.4 Agents of Change in the Lower Reaches of the Daugava River 398
- 7.4.5 The Beginning of Riga 403
- 7.5 Southern Couronian Coast 404
- 7.6 Coins and Trade 407
  - 7.6.1 Coins and Hoards in the 11th–12th Centuries 408
  - 7.6.2 The Baltic Rim Seen from Sicily 412
  - 7.6.3 Mercantile Point of View of “Towns” around the Baltic 415
- 7.7 Conclusions 419

- 8 Summing up and Conclusions 421
  - 8.1 Two Cultural Spheres in the Eastern Baltic 422
  - 8.2 The Shared Cultural Sphere of Warriors 423
  - 8.3 Written Sources and Places on the Eastern Coasts of the Baltic Sea 424
  - 8.4 Different Periods in the Viking Age 427

- Bibliography 431
- Index 473