

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction: Environmental History as Political Ecology

ALF HORNBERG 1

Part I: The Environment in World-System History: Tracing Social Processes in Nature

CHAPTER 1

Environmental Impacts of the Roman Economy and Social

Structure: Augustus to Diocletian J. DONALD HUGHES 27

CHAPTER 2

“People Said Extinction Was Not Possible”: Two Thousand

Years of Environmental Change in South China ROBERT B. MARKS 41

CHAPTER 3

Precolonial Landesque Capital: A Global Perspective MATS WIDGREN 61

CHAPTER 4

Food, War, and Crisis: The Seventeenth-Century

Swedish Empire JANKEN MYRDAL 79

CHAPTER 5

The Role of Deforestation in Earth and World-System Integration

MICHAEL WILLIAMS 101

CHAPTER 6

Silver, Ecology, and the Origins of the Modern World, 1450–1640

JASON W. MOORE 123

CHAPTER 7

Trade, “Trinkets,” and Environmental Change at the Edge of World-Systems: Political Ecology and the East African Ivory Trade

N. THOMAS HÅKANSSON 143

CHAPTER 8

Steps to an Environmental History of the Western Llanos of Venezuela: A World-System Perspective

RAFAEL A. GASSÓN 163

CHAPTER 9

The Extractive Economy: An Early Phase of the Globalization of Diet, and Its Environmental Consequences

RICHARD WILK 179

CHAPTER 10

Yellow Jack and Geopolitics: Environment, Epidemics, and the Struggles for Empire in the American Tropics, 1640–1830

J. R. MCNEILL 199

Part II: Ecology and Unequal Exchange: Unraveling Environmental Injustice in the Modern World

CHAPTER 11

Marxism, Social Metabolism, and International Trade

JOAN MARTINEZ-ALIER 221

CHAPTER 12

Natural Values and the Physical Inevitability of Uneven Development under Capitalism

STEPHEN G. BUNKER 239

CHAPTER 13

Footprints in the Cotton Fields: The Industrial Revolution as Time-Space Appropriation and Environmental

Load Displacement

ALF HORNBERG 259

CHAPTER 14

Uneven Ecological Exchange and Consumption-Based Environmental Impacts: A Cross-National
Investigation ANDREW K. JORGENSEN AND JAMES RICE 273

CHAPTER 15

Combining Social Metabolism and Input-Output Analyses to Account for Ecologically Unequal Trade HELGA WEISZ 289

CHAPTER 16

Physical Trade Flows of Pollution-Intensive Products:
Historical Trends in Europe and the World
ROLDAN MURADIAN AND STEFAN GILJUM 307

CHAPTER 17

Environmental Issues at the U.S.-Mexico Border and the Unequal Territorialization of Value JOSIAH HEYMAN 327

CHAPTER 18

Surrogate Money, Technology, and the Expansion of Savanna
Soybeans in Brazil WILLIAM H. FISHER 345

CHAPTER 19

Scale and Dependency in World-Systems: Local Societies in Convergent Evolution JOSEPH A. TAINTER 361

CHAPTER 20

The Ecology and the Economy: What Is Rational?
IMMANUEL WALLERSTEIN 379

Index 391

About the Contributors 407