

Acknowledgments Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
1. Posted: Socialism, Modernity, State	1
2. Constructing Difference: Western versus Non-Western, Capitalist versus Socialist Urban Logic	13
3. “He That Hath to Him Shall Be Given”: Inequalities of Housing Privatization	35
4. Inner City Doubly Renewed: Global Phenomenon, Local Accents	59
5. Assembling the Square: Social Transformation in Public Space and the Broken Mirage of the Second Economy	103
6. Globalizing Art and Consumption: Art Movies and Shopping Malls	129
7. Urban Texture Unraveling: Fragmentation of the City	157
Conclusion	183
Appendix: Models of Housing Privatization	189
Notes	195
Works Cited	207
Index	219