

regulars

Cover Story

Refurbishment is taking place at Afghanistan's largest hydropower plant

4 World News

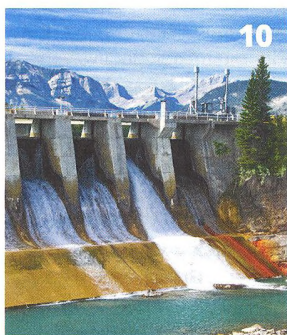

UK government rejects Swansea Bay Tidal Barrage; deal signed to advance research on hydropower

16 Spotlight

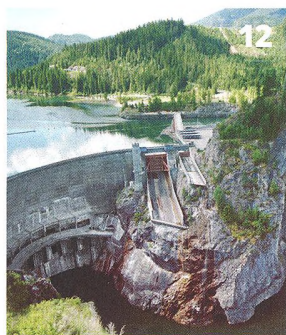

Global hydropower statistics have been unveiled in the IHA's 2018 Hydropower Status Report

45
Classified
50
Contacts

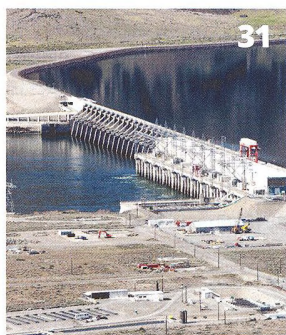

features

10

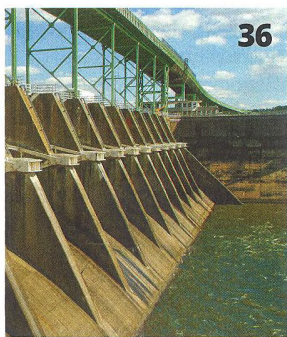

12

31

34

36

Refurbishment

8 Afghan restoration
Recent rehabilitation of the Naghlu hydropower plant

10 Refurbishment drives hydro on
Report highlights how upgrading and refurbishment work is an important driver for hydro performance

12 Extend and modernize
Work is planned on hydropower and dam projects worldwide

Project development

16
Details on the International Hydropower Association's 2018 Hydropower Status Report

20 High-tech fish surveys making a splash in the Himalayas
Innovative and non-evasive fish documentation

22 The power of power
Scottish MP Drew Hendry gives his thoughts about the development of Scottish hydropower

Dam safety
24 A future where all dams are safe
Preview of Dam Safety 2018 which will be held from 9-13 September in Seattle, Washington

28 On display at Dam Safety 2018
Developments from exhibitors at Dam Safety 2018

Spillways
31 Leakage investigations
Inspecting Priest Rapids Dam

32 Onwards at Oroville
The California Department of Water Resources has provided a recent update on how work is progressing at Oroville Dam

Construction
34 Building up and breaking through
Spotlight on international construction projects

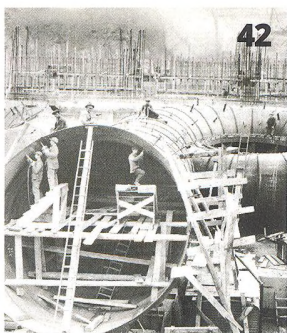

36 Nuclear protection
Concrete flood wall at TVA's Fort Loudoun Dam helps to protect Watts Bar and Sequoyah nuclear plants from a worst-case flood scenario.

Training & education
38 Sharing experiences along the career path
Facilitating the exchange of life and career experiences is being viewed as an important component of measures to attract and retain more women workers in the power industry

42 Invisible superheroes
An insight into the Institution of Civil Engineers' bicentenary celebrations

38

42

Next issue

Pumped storage development in Dubai, managing risks in hydropower plants, news from the International Commission on Large Dams, new technology