

Contents

Acknowledgments	page ix
Introduction: From Sweet Home to Homeland	1
1 History and the Novel	10
The Way We Were(n't)	13
American Icons	19
Anxieties and Influences	30
2 Regional Realism	38
Suburban Sprawls	41
Geographies and Genealogies	47
All-Americans	58
3 The Contemporary Political Novel	65
The American Berserk	67
American Activism, American Terrorism	75
Here, There, and Everywhere	83
4 The Novel and 9/11	93
Falling Men and Haunted Women	97
Speaking for/about/with/to Others	104
Mixed Media	114

5 Smooth Worlds	122
Smooth Operators	125
(New) New York, New York	131
From Russia with Lyubov'yu	138
Glocal Geographies	145
6 Borderlands and Border Identities	151
Home(less) on the Range	154
The Name Game	160
The Late-Night Zeitgeist	171
7 Race Relations	179
Houses Divided, Houses Burned	184
The Hoodoo That You Do So Well	191
The Color Beige	199
Conclusion: Postscripts and Post-Postmodernism	208
Works Cited	223
Index	242