

CONTENTS

What it is all about	5
An outline of Czechoslovakia	7
History of the Czech and Slovak nations	8
Organization of the State	12
The coat of arms, flag and national colours	14
Embassies, legations and consulates of the Czechoslovak Republic	14
Information on travel formalities and tourist traffic in Czechoslovakia	15
What do you know of Central Europe?	16
Introducing Czechoslovak industries	29
The engineers	34
Traffic by road and rail	39
Czechoslovaks are keen business men	42
The Prague Trade Fair	44
The great work of reconstruction	45
The people combine for economic self-help	53
Two millions of hand and brain workers in a united organization	54
Czechoslovak social welfare—a model for other nations	56
A country of mineral springs	59
The best doctor—mountain air and sunshine	61
Science in Czechoslovakia	62
Czech and Slovak literature	64
Czechoslovak music	66
Things of interest for musicians	68
The visual arts	70
The theatre	74
Religious practice	75
The national character of the people	76
Points of ethnographical interest	77
Sports in Czechoslovakia	78

Sokol—symbol of a people	80
The workers' gymnastic movement	82
Organization of the Catholic gymnastic movement	83
The boy scout movement	84
Prague, the capital of the State	85
From the history of Prague	85
Time-table of international expresses	86
Information for foreigners arriving at the station	87
Vocabulary	88
Motoring in Prague	89
Airway connections	90
Finding one's bearings	90
List of embassies, legations and consulates	93
Addresses of ministries and central government offices in Prague	95
Administration of the City of Prague	96
Passport and visa	96
Foreign centres and clubs in Prague	97
Travel agencies	97
Hotels	98
Vocabulary	98
Tobacco and postage stamps	98
Czech notices and signs in common use	99
Chief banks	100
Municipal tram routes	100
Circular tours around Prague	100
Taxis	100
The Prague Steam Navigation Company	100
Guides	101
Losses, complaints and enquiries for addresses	101
Sightseeing through Prague	102
Picturesque old Prague	102
A short stroll through the Old Town	109
Modern Prague	112

Time-honoured Vyšehrad, modern Barrandov, and Villa Bertramka where Mozart stayed	114
660 feet above Prague	117
North Prague	119
Vocabulary	121
Villa suburbs	121
Islands in the river Vltava	122
Parks and recreation grounds	122
Cemeteries	122
Masterpieces of Prague architecture	122
Illustrated works on Prague	125
Museums	125
Church treasures	125
Picture galleries and exhibitions	125
Panoramas	126
Universities and colleges	126
Scientific institutes	126
Libraries	127
Booksellers and second-hand bookshops	127
Lecture halls	127
Theatres, cinemas and sports grounds	127
Vocabulary	128
Concert halls	128
Cinemas in central Prague	128
Advance booking-offices	128
Sports grounds in Prague	129
Bathing places, boats for hire	129
Where to eat and drink in Prague	129
Ration cards for foreigners	129
Well-known restaurants	130
Garden restaurants	130
Recipes from a Bohemian kitchen	130
Vocabulary	131
Refreshment rooms and snack-bars	133

Some delicatessen stores	133
Milk bars	133
Fish restaurants	133
Pastrycooks	133
Some cafés	133
Wineshops	134
Bars	134
Zoological gardens	135
Sanatoriums	135
Hospitals	135
List of international transport and forwarding agents	135
The week-end in Prague	135
Across Czechoslovakia	137
Bratislava, capital of Slovakia	137
Brno, capital of Moravia	142
A review of further Czech and Slovak towns	144
The industrial town of Plzeň (Pilsen), "Black" Kladno and martyred Lidice	144
The famous castle of Karlův Týn, and Lány, the summer-residence of the President of the Republic	145
Klatovy and Domažlice, two characteristic towns in the Šumava (Bohemian Forest)	146
České Budějovice—Hluboká—Český Krumlov—Zlatá Koruna—Vyšší Brod, five famous towns of Southern Bohemia	146
Ústí nad Labem—Liberec—Jablonec n. N., chemical, textile and glass industries	147
The modern town of Hradec Králové and its rival Pardubice	147
Sedlec with its gruesome chandeliers and the famous cathedral of St. Barbara in Kutná Hora	148
Tábor, the cradle of Hussitism, and picturesque Jindřichův Hradec	149
Poděbrady, the Mecca of heart sufferers	149

15. (Right, above) : State Hotel, Tatranská Lomnice, Slovakia.

Photo: Dir. of T. T., Bratislava.

(Below) : The Château at Topolčiany, Slovakia, the summer residence of President Beneš.

Photo: Illek & Paul

Krkonoše (Giant Mountains)—Šumava (Bohemian Forest)—Krušné hory (Ore Mountains), popular places of recreation and summer and winter excursions	149
The fertile Haná region and its towns	150
Magic of the underworld of the Moravian Karst	150
Memorable spots around Slavkov (Austerlitz)	151
Interesting towns and places north and west of Brno	151
Luhačovice—Zlín—Kroměříž, the triangle of eastern Moravia	151
Moravské Slovácko (Moravian Slovakia), unique region of popular culture	152
Ostrava, Centre of Mining and Heavy Industries	152
Turčiansky Sv. Martin, the cradle of Slovak national life	152
Memorable Kremnica, and Banská Bystrica, scene of the heroic Slovak rising, 1944	153
Košice, the metropolis of East Slovakia, and Levoča, the treasury of Central Slovak art	153
Slovakia's mountain glories and underground miracles	153
The national characteristics of the Slovak people	154
Places of special interest	154

MAPS AND ILLUSTRATIONS

Simplified map of the Continent	6
Simplified map of Czechoslovakia	between pp. 16 & 17
Sketch map: orientation from Wilson station, Prague	92
Sketch map: orientation from Masaryk station, Prague	94
Map of tram routes in Prague	between pp. 96 & 97
Plan of Prague, parts 1 and 2	between pp. 104 & 105
Plan of Prague, parts 3 and 4	between pp. 112 & 113
Views of Prague, Bratislava, Brno etc.: between pp. 32 & 33; 48 & 49; 64 & 65; 80 & 81; 128 & 129; 144 & 145; 152 & 153; 160 & 161.

16. (Left): The Sokol Congress, Prague, 1938. Women Gymnasts forming ranks for exercises before an audience of 200,000 at the Strahov Stadium, Prague. Photo: ČOS