

PART III: ON WHAT WE MUST DO NOW	185
10 On the Need for New Approaches to Global Economic and Environmental Goals and Governance	187
11 On Reimagining the Relationship Between Economy and Environment in International Economic Law to Support Sustainable Development	213
12 On a New Approach for Sustainable Energy in International Trade Law	246
13 On How International Investment Law Can Be Reimagined for Sustainable Development	271
14 On Policy Space and Post-Paris Climate Action	289
15 On Food, Forests, Oceans, and Fisheries	309
16 On Water, Biodiversity, and Rules to Protect Natural Resources	330
17 On Making and Remaking Enabling Frameworks for Sustainable Development	356
18 On Resolving Disputes and Linking Enabling Frameworks Through the International Rule of Law	380
Conclusion: The Willing World	404
Notes	411
Index	505