

CONTENTS

Preface xi

Introduction xv

PART ONE: APPROACHES

- I Memory and Self-Observation: The Perpetuation of the Nineteenth Century 3
 - 1 Visibility and Audibility 5
 - 2 Treasuries of Memory and Knowledge 7
 - 3 Observation, Description, Realism 17
 - 4 Numbers 25
 - 5 News 29
 - 6 Photography 39
- II Time: When Was the Nineteenth Century? 45
 - 1 Chronology and the Coherence of the Age 45
 - 2 Calendar and Periodization 49
 - 3 Breaks and Transitions 52
 - 4 The Age of Revolution, Victorianism, Fin de Siècle 58
 - 5 Clocks and Acceleration 67
- III Space: Where Was the Nineteenth Century? 77
 - 1 Space and Time 77
 - 2 Metageography: Naming Spaces 78
 - 3 Mental Maps: The Relativity of Spatial Perspective 86
 - 4 Spaces of Interaction: Land and Sea 94
 - 5 Ordering and Governing Space 104
 - 6 Territoriality, Diaspora, Borders 107

PART TWO: PANORAMAS

-
- IV Mobilities 117
- 1 Magnitudes and Tendencies 117
 - 2 Population Disasters and the Demographic Transition 124
 - 3 The Legacy of Early Modern Migrations: Creoles and Slaves 128
 - 4 Penal Colony and Exile 133
 - 5 Ethnic Cleansing 139
 - 6 Internal Migration and the Changing Slave Trade 144
 - 7 Migration and Capitalism 154
 - 8 Global Motives 164
- V Living Standards: Risk and Security in Material Life 167
- 1 The Standard of Living and the Quality of Life 167
 - 2 Life Expectancy and "Homo hygienicus" 170
 - 3 Medical Fears and Prevention 178
 - 4 Mobile Perils, Old and New 185
 - 5 Natural Disasters 197
 - 6 Famine 201
 - 7 Agricultural Revolutions 211
 - 8 Poverty and Wealth 216
 - 9 Globalized Consumption 226
- VI Cities: European Models and Worldwide Creativity 241
- 1 The City as Norm and Exception 241
 - 2 Urbanization and Urban Systems 249
 - 3 Between Deurbanization and Hypergrowth 256
 - 4 Specialized Cities, Universal Cities 264
 - 5 The Golden Age of Port Cities 275
 - 6 Colonial Cities, Treaty Ports, Imperial Metropolises 283
 - 7 Internal Spaces and Undergrounds 297
 - 8 Symbolism, Aesthetics, Planning 311
- VII Frontiers: Subjugation of Space and Challenges to Nomadic Life 322
- 1 Invasions and Frontier Processes 322
 - 2 The North American West 331
 - 3 South America and South Africa 347
 - 4 Eurasia 356
 - 5 Settler Colonialism 368
 - 6 The Conquest of Nature: Invasions of the Biosphere 375
- VIII Imperial Systems and Nation-States: The Persistence of Empires 392
- 1 Great-Power Politics and Imperial Expansion 392
 - 2 Paths to the Nation-State 403

- 3 What Holds Empires Together? 419
- 4 Empires: Typology and Comparisons 429
- 5 Central and Marginal Cases 434
- 6 Pax Britannica 450
- 7 Living in Empires 461
- IX International Orders, Wars, Transnational Movements:
 - Between Two World Wars 469
 - 1 The Thorny Path to a Global System of States 469
 - 2 Spaces of Power and Hegemony 475
 - 3 Peaceful Europe, Wartorn Asia and Africa 483
 - 4 Diplomacy as Political Instrument and Intercultural Art 493
 - 5 Internationalisms and the Emergence of Universal Norms 505
- X Revolutions: From Philadelphia via Nanjing to Saint Petersburg 514
 - 1 Revolutions—from Below, from Above, from Unexpected Directions 514
 - 2 The Revolutionary Atlantic 522
 - 3 The Great Turbulence in Midcentury 543
 - 4 Eurasian Revolutions, Fin de Siècle 558
- XI The State: Minimal Government, Performances, and the Iron Cage 572
 - 1 Order and Communication: The State and the Political 572
 - 2 Reinventions of Monarchy 579
 - 3 Democracy 593
 - 4 Bureaucracies 605
 - 5 Mobilization and Discipline 616
 - 6 Self-Strengthening: The Politics of Peripheral Defensive 625
 - 7 State and Nationalism 629

PART THREE: THEMES

- XII Energy and Industry: Who Unbound Prometheus, When, and Where? 637
 - 1 Industrialization 638
 - 2 Energy Regimes: The Century of Coal 651
 - 3 Paths of Economic Development and Nondevelopment 658
 - 4 Capitalism 667
- XIII Labor: The Physical Basis of Culture 673
 - 1 The Weight of Rural Labor 675
 - 2 Factory, Construction Site, Office 685
 - 3 Toward Emancipation: Slaves, Serfs, Peasants 697
 - 4 The Asymmetry of Wage Labor 706

XIV	Networks: Extension, Density, Holes	710
	1 Communications	712
	2 Trade	724
	3 Money and Finance	730
XV	Hierarchies: The Vertical Dimension of Social Space	744
	1 Is a Global Social History Possible?	744
	2 Aristocracies in (Moderate) Decline	750
	3 Bourgeois and Quasi-bourgeois	761
XVI	Knowledge: Growth, Concentration, Distribution	779
	1 World Languages	781
	2 Literacy and Schooling	788
	3 The University as a Cultural Export from Europe	798
	4 Mobility and Translation	808
	5 Humanities and the Study of the Other	814
XVII	Civilization and Exclusion	826
	1 The “Civilized World” and Its “Mission”	826
	2 Slave Emancipation and White Supremacy	837
	3 Antiforeignism and “Race War”	855
	4 Anti-Semitism	865
XVIII	Religion	873
	1 Concepts of Religion and the Religious	873
	2 Secularization	880
	3 Religion and Empire	887
	4 Reform and Renewal	894
	Conclusion: The Nineteenth Century in History	902
	1 Self-Diagnostics	902
	2 Modernity	904
	3 Again: The Beginning or End of a Century	906
	4 Five Characteristics of the Century	907
	Abbreviations	921
	Notes	923
	Bibliography	1021
	Index	1119