

Contents

List of Tables	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
List of Abbreviations and Acronyms	xv
1 The Nexus between Socio-Economic and Political Change in Italy: Why Does Italy Matter?	1
Why the Government and Politics of Italy Are Important	1
Italy as a Case Study for Developing Countries and Democratization	7
Italy's Vanguard Role in the Unification of Europe	9
Italy's Alternative System of Power: The Non-Westminster Model	11
2 The Impact of Economic Challenges on Italy's Political System	17
The Sovereign Debt Crisis and Its Impact on the Italian Government	17
The Reform of the Pension System (Fornero Reform)	28
The Reform of the Labour Market: The Renzi Jobs Act	31
Italicum: Electoral Reform	35
Partial Constitutional Reform: The Aborted Attempt to Abolish the Senate	39
3 Parliament: Democratization of Representative Institutions	47
The Institutionalization of Parliament and the Parliamentarization of Parties	48
The Changing Role of Parliament and the Role of the Charismatic Leader	58
	vii

	Parliamentary Elites: Who Gets Elected and Where?	67
	How Parliament Legislates: The Role of Standing Committees	71
	The Gatekeepers of Democracy: The Role of the Floor	74
4	The Executive Branch: Who Rules Italy?	79
	Italy's Dual Executive and the Presidentialization of the Political Process	80
	The Prime Minister and the Dynamics of Coalition Government	86
	The Prime Minister: Primus Inter Pares or Delegated Governance?	91
	Executive Decrees as a Substitute for Parliamentary Initiatives	95
	The Long Road to Implementation	98
5	The Judicial System: The Delivery of Justice under the Separation of Powers	101
	The Penal, Civil and Administrative Court Systems	102
	The Governance of the Judiciary	104
	The Judiciary's Response to Terrorism and Organized Crime	106
	The Struggle against Corruption: The Role of the Judiciary	112
	Reform of the Judiciary	115
6	The Electoral System and the Search for Political Advantage	119
	The Nexus between Electoral and Constitutional Reform in Italy	119
	Political Campaigning and Voter Turnout	124
	The Unending Search for Government Stability through Electoral Reform	128
	The Impact of Electoral Reform on Government Stability after 2005	132
7	The Political Party System	139
	The Ideological Divide	141
	The Depolarization of the Italian Political System	152

The Rise and Fall of Berlusconi and the People of Freedom Party	154
The Northern League: From Federalism to Secessionism to Fascism	157
New Charismatic Leaders on the Right: Grillo and the Five Star Movement	162
8 Organized Groups and Civil Society	165
The Church and the Impact of the Social Orientation of Catholicism	169
The Trade Union Movement from Subordination to Independence	178
Entrepreneurs and the Restructuring of Business Representation	186
The Redefinition of Civil Society and Its Political Representation	192
9 Italy as an International Actor: Punching Above Its Weight?	195
Italy's Mediterranean Policy and Immigration	198
The External Projections of the Italian Military	207
Italian Policy towards Europe and the US	211
10 Conclusions	215
The Redefinition of the Social and Economic Order under Difficult Conditions	216
What Can Be Learned from the Italian System of Governance and Politics?	220
The Italian Contribution to the Understanding of European Politics	222
Bibliography	225
Index	237