
Contents

PART I: Introduction	1
CHAPTER 1
Issues in Child Psychology	3
CHAPTER 2
Methods in Child Psychology	32
PART II: Prenatal Development and the Newborn Child	55
CHAPTER 3
Prenatal Development	57
CHAPTER 4
Physical and Motor Capacities of the Newborn	85
CHAPTER 5
Perceptual, Cognitive, and Social Capacities of the Newborn	106
PART III: The First Two Years of Life	127
CHAPTER 6
Physical and Motor Development in the First Two Years	129

CHAPTER 7

Perceptual Capacities During the First Two Years153

CHAPTER 8

Cognitive Development in the First Two Years173

CHAPTER 9

Language and Communication in the First Two Years ...193

CHAPTER 10

Personality and Social Development
in the Child Under Two212

PART IV: The Young Child—Age Two to Six .. 231

CHAPTER 11

Physical and Motor Development in the Young Child ...233

CHAPTER 12

Cognitive and Perceptual Development
in the Young Child241

CHAPTER 13

Individual Differences in Intellectual Development
in the Young Child275

CHAPTER 14

Language Development in the Preschool Years299

CHAPTER 15

Personality and Social Development
in the Young Child326

PART V: Middle Childhood 351

CHAPTER 16

Physical Development in Middle Childhood353

CHAPTER 17

Cognitive and Perceptual Development
in Middle Childhood358

CHAPTER 18

Language Acquisition in Middle Childhood376

CHAPTER 19
Personality and Social Development
in Middle Childhood382

PART VI: Adolescent Development 411

CHAPTER 20
Physical Changes in Adolescence413

CHAPTER 21
Cognitive Development in Adolescence426

CHAPTER 22
Personality and Social Development in Adolescence ...435

GLOSSARY457

INDEX479