

CONTENTS

Notes on contributors	viii
Acknowledgments	xiv
Introduction Kirsten Madden	1
PART I
Beginning prior to 1850	11
1 Indian women's agency through Indian women's literature Sheetal Bharat	13
2 English women's economic thought in the 1790s: domestic economy, married women's economic dependence, and access to professions Joanna Rostek	33
3 British women on the British Empire Janet Seiz	53
4 Harriet Taylor Mill, Mary Paley Marshall and Beatrice Potter Webb: women economists and economists' wives Virginie Gouverneur	73
5 Japanese women's economics, 1818–2005 Aiko Ikeo	90

PART II

Beginning in the late 19th century 111

- 6 Contextualizing women's economic thought in late Imperial Russia and in the early years of revolution: 1870–1920 113
Anna Klimina
- 7 Is equal pay worth it? Beatrice Potter Webb's, Millicent Garrett Fawcett's and Eleanor Rathbone's changing arguments 129
Cléo Chassonnery-Zaïgouche
- 8 The economic thought of the Women's Co-operative Guild 150
Kirsten Madden and Joseph Persky
- 9 Anecdotes of discrimination: barriers to women's participation in economic thought during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries 169
Kirsten Madden
- 10 The point is to change it: three lives of applied Marxism 191
Zoe Sherman

PART III

Beginning in the early 20th century 209

- 11 Women economists in the academy: struggles and strategies, 1900–1940 211
Mary Ann Dzuback
- 12 Daughters of Commons: Wisconsin women and Institutionalism 229
Marianne Johnson
- 13 Women economists of promise? Six Hart, Schaffner and Marx Prize winners in the early twentieth century 250
Kirsten Madden
- 14 Early women economists at Columbia University: contributions in the struggle for labor protection in the Lochner era 272
Clara Elisabetta Mattei
- 15 Chinese economic development and Chinese women economists: a study of overseas doctoral dissertations 290
Yue Xiao

PART IV
Spanning the mid-20th century		307
16 Austrian School women economists		309
Giandomenica Becchio
17 Placing women's economics within Soviet economic discourse: 1920s–1991		325
Anna Klimina
18 Ursula Hicks' and Vera Lutz's contributions to development finance		341
Lucy Brillant
19 The two faces of economic forecasting in Italy: Vera Cao Pinna and Almerina Ipsevich		358
Marcella Corsi and Giulia Zacchia
PART V
Beginning mid-20th, extending into the 21st century		373
20 The first 100 years of female economists in sub-Saharan Africa		375
Lola Fowler and Robert W. Dimand
21 Women economists of the Arab Homeland		392
Talia Yousef and Robert W. Dimand
22 The invisible ones: women at CEPAL (1948–2017)		407
Rebeca Gómez Betancourt and Camila Orozco Espinel
23 Women's employment in the informal sector in developing countries: contributions of Lourdes Benería and Martha (Marty) Chen		428
Farida Chowdhury Khan
24 Women's neoclassical models of marriage, 1972–2015		442
Shoshana Grossbard
Index		455