

List of tables and figures Contents

	List of tables and figures	v
	Notes on contributors	vi
one	Ageing and diversity: a critical introduction Simon Biggs and Svein Olav Daatland	1 Section I: Individual pathways two	Ageing differently: potential and limits Jacqui Smith and Denis Gerstorf	13 three	The personal meaning of individuality and relatedness: gender differences in middle and late adulthood Gerben J. Westerhof and Christina Bode	29 four	Diversity, health and ageing Lars Andersson and Peter Öberg	45 five	Gender trajectories: how age and marital status influence patterns of gender inequality in later life Sara Arber	61
Section II: Social identifications six	The search for ageing identities Andrew Blaikie	79
seven	New ageism: age imperialism, personal experience and ageing policy Simon Biggs	95
eight	Sexuality in gerontology: a heteronormative presence, a queer absence Ann Cronin	107
Section III: Migration and otherness nine	Making sense of the construct of successful ageing: the migrant experience Sandra Torres	125
ten	Older foreign migrants in Europe: multiple pathways and welfare positions Tony Warnes	141
eleven	Transnational communities, migration and changing identities in later life: a new research agenda Chris Phillipson and Nilufar Ahmed	157

Section IV: Structure and agency twelve	Societal trends and lifecourse events affecting diversity in later life Jenny De Jong Gierveld	175 thirteen	Quality of life and social inequality in old age Andreas Motel-Klingebiel	189 fourteen	Class, power and inequality in later life Paul Higgs and Chris Gilleard	207 fifteen	Ageing and diversity, what next? Svein Olav Daatland and Simon Biggs	223

	Index	229