Foreword	v	Interpretation of acid–base data	50
Preface	vi	Oxygen transport and its disorders	52
Acknowledgements	vi
1. BIOCHEMICAL TESTS IN CLINICAL MEDICINE	1	5. THE KIDNEY	54
Use of biochemical tests	1	Biochemical tests of renal function	56
Sampling	1	Renal disorders	59
Sample analysis and reporting of results	2	Renal calculi	72
Interpretation of results	3
Specificity, sensitivity and predictive value of tests	6	6. THE LIVER	75
Screening	8	Bilirubin metabolism	76
		Biochemical assessment of liver function	78
		Liver disease	80
2. WATER AND SODIUM	10
Water and sodium distribution	10	7. THE GASTROINTESTINAL TRACT	90
Water and sodium homoeostasis	11	The stomach	90
Water and sodium depletion	14	The pancreas	92
Water and sodium excess	18	The small intestine	97
Laboratory assessment of water and sodium status	20	Disorders of intestinal function	100
Hyponatraemia	21	Gastrointestinal hormones	103
Hypernatraemia	25
		8. THE HYPOTHALAMUS AND PITUITARY GLAND	105
3. POTASSIUM	27	Anterior pituitary hormones	106
Homoeostasis	27	Measurement of anterior pituitary hormones	110
Hypokalaemia	29	Disorders of anterior pituitary function	110
Hyperkalaemia	32	Posterior pituitary hormones	119
4. HYDROGEN ION HOMOEOSTASIS AND BLOOD GASES	35
Clinical and laboratory assessment of hydrogen ion status	38
Disorders of hydrogen ion homoeostasis	40

9. THE ADRENAL GLANDS	123	Calcium and phosphate homoeostasis	194
Adrenal steroid hormone biosynthesis	123	Disorders of calcium, phosphate and magnesium metabolism	196
Measurement of adrenal steroid hormones	123
Disorders of the adrenal cortex	126
Disorders of the adrenal medulla	136
10. THE THYROID GLAND	139	15. PLASMA PROTEINS	207
Thyroid hormones	140	Measurement of plasma proteins	207
Tests of thyroid function	144	Specific plasma proteins	210
Disorders of the thyroid	147	Immunoglobulins	212
Screening for thyroid disease	154	Proteins in other body fluids	217
11. THE GONADS	155	16. LIPIDS AND LIPOPROTEINS	219
Disorders of male gonadal function	157	Triglycerides, cholesterol and phospholipids	219
Disorders of female gonadal function	158	Classification of lipoproteins	219
Pregnancy	162	Lipoprotein metabolism	221
12. DIABETES MELLITUS	167	Reference ranges and laboratory investigations	225
Measurement of glucose concentration	168	Disorders of lipid metabolism	226
Diabetes mellitus	168	Management of lipid disorders	231
Metabolic complications of diabetes	172	Lipoprotein deficiency	232
Glycosuria	179	17. CLINICAL ENZYMOLOGY	234
Glucose in cerebrospinal fluid	179	Enzymes of diagnostic value	235
13. HYPOGLYCAEMIA	181	Serum enzymes in disease	240
Hypoglycaemia	181	Enzymes in other body fluids and tissues	244
Hypoglycaemic syndromes	182	18. INHERITED METABOLIC DISEASES	246
Hypoglycaemia in childhood	186	Effects of enzyme defects	246
14. CALCIUM, PHOSPHATE, MAGNESIUM AND BONE	189	Inherited metabolic disorders	247
Bone	190	Diagnosis	250
Serum calcium	190	Screening	251
Calcium-regulating hormones	192	Prenatal diagnosis	252
		Treatment	252

19. HAEMOPROTEINS, PORPHYRINS AND IRON	255	24. CLINICAL CHEMISTRY AT THE EXTREMES OF AGE	305
Haemoproteins	255	Old age: introduction	305
Porphyryns	257	Reference ranges	305
Iron	261	Screening	306
		Childhood: introduction	308
		Reference ranges	308
		Screening	309
		Childhood disorders	309
20. HYPERURICAEMIA AND GOUT	265
Uric acid metabolism	265	Adult reference ranges	315
Uric acid in serum	266	Case history index	317
Hyperuricaemia	267	Index	319
Hypouricaemia	270
Other crystalline arthropathies	270
21. METABOLIC ASPECTS OF MALIGNANT DISEASE	273
Paraneoplastic syndromes	273
Cancer cachexia	277
Carcinoid tumours	278
Pluriglandular syndromes	279
Tumour markers	280
Conclusion	283
22. THERAPEUTIC DRUG MONITORING AND CHEMICAL ASPECTS OF TOXICOLOGY	285
Therapeutic drug monitoring	285
Monitoring of specific drugs	287
Chemical toxicology	290
Poisoning with specific agents	290
Screening for drugs	295
23. CLINICAL NUTRITION	297
Vitamin deficiencies	297
Water-soluble vitamins	297
Fat-soluble vitamins	299
Trace elements	300
Provision of nutritional support	301
