

C O N T E N T S

I. INTRODUCTION

/i/	Outline of the textbook	11
/ii/	About functions	13
/iii/	The aim of the textbook	14
	a/ What the course contains	14
	b/ Who the course is intended for	14
	c/ What each unit contains /sections A, B, C, D, E/	14
	d/ How to use the course	17
	e/ Homework?	18
	f/ Self study	18
/iv/	To the teacher - methodology	19

II. UNITS

1.	Greetings /when meeting, when leaving, attracting someone's attention/	21
2.	Introductions	28
3.	Talking about weather	36
4.	Questions, responses	43
5.	Agreement, disagreement	52
6.	Likes, dislikes, preferences	60
7.	Consolidation unit. How do you feel about learning English? Enjoy it!	68
8.	Advice	72
9.	Suggestions	78
10.	Requests	88
11.	Problems, troubles, worries	94
12.	Opinions	101
13.	Complaining, sympathy, consolation, compliments	108
14.	Consolidation unit. How do you feel about learning English? Enjoy it!	115
15.	Requests, remembering	120
16.	Certainty, uncertainty, doubt	127
17.	Giving reasons	133
18.	Please and thank you, saying you are pleased, dis- pleased and angry	140
19.	Apologies, refusing to do something	146
20.	Expressing feelings, making exclamations, saying you are excited or bored	153
21.	Consolidation unit. How do you feel about learning English? Enjoy it!	160

22. Surprise, disappointment, belief, approval, relief . . .	165
23. Necessity, obligation	172
24. Invitations, proposing a toast, giving someone your general good wishes	178
25. Possibility, impossibility	188
26. Finding out about language	194
27. Making communication work, ending a conversation . . .	203
28. Consolidation unit. How do you feel about learning English? Enjoy it and carry on!	212