

Contents

Acknowledgments / vii

Note on Names, Terms, and Titles / ix

Chronology / xi

1 Considerations on Death in the Korean Context

Michael J. Pettid and Charlotte Horlyck

/ 1 /

Part I The Body

2 Death and Burial in Medieval Korea: The Buddhist Legacy

Sem Vermeersch

/ 21 /

3 Making Death “Modern”: Reevaluating the Patient’s Body, Transforming Medical Practice, and Reforming Public Health
at Seoul National University Hospital, 1957–1977

John P. DiMoia

/ 57 /

Part II Disposal

4 Ways of Burial in Koryŏ Times

Charlotte Horlyck

/ 83 /

5 Death as a Nationalist Text:
Reading the National Cemetery of South Korea

Guy Podoler

/ 112 /

Part III Ancestral Worship and Rites

6 Shamanic Rites for the Dead in Chosŏn Korea

Michael J. Pettid

/ 137 /

7 The Familiar Dead: The Creation of an Intimate Afterlife in Early Chosŏn Korea

Milan Hejtmanek

/ 155 /

Part IV Afterlife

8 Ghostly Encounters: Perceptions of Death and the Afterlife in Koryŏ and Early Chosŏn

Michael J. Pettid

/ 171 /

9 Buddhism and Death in Kim Man-jung's *A Nine Cloud
Dream*: From Fact to Fiction, and Nowhere Back Again

Gregory N. Evon

/ 190 /

10 Dying for Heaven: Persecution, Martyrdom, and Family in the Early Korean Catholic Church

Franklin Rausch

/ 213 /

Bibliography / 237

List of Contributors / 257

Index / 259