

Table of Contents

1. Introduction	1
A. The Fault of History	4
B. The State, the Individual, and the Relationships	6
C. History and Theory	10
1. The devil is in the details: refocusing PrIL historiography	10
2. Texts and contexts	12
3. Dialogues as entry points	16
4. International themes within an international dialogue	17
5. Time, people, places	19
6. The dialogue between past and present	20
2. Individual- and State-Centered Perspectives in Nineteenth-Century Private International Law	23
A. Introduction	23
B. The First Two Giants of the Nineteenth Century	29
1. Joseph Story	29
2. Friedrich Karl von Savigny	35
C. Conflicts of Laws as Conflicts of Sovereignty	41
1. Pasquale Mancini	43
2. Antoine Pillet and Ernst Zitelmann	50
D. Josephus Jitta	59
E. Conclusions	68
3. Individual- and State-Centered Perspectives in Nineteenth-Century Europe	70
A. Introduction	70
B. Savigny's Legacy	72
1. The international community of states	73
2. The seat of the legal relation	76
C. The Debate Among Universalists	78
D. Universalism Versus Particularism	85
E. Sovereignty and Vested Rights in Late Nineteenth-Century English PrIL Scholarship	89
F. Conclusions	91
4. Tracing the Relational Internationalist Perspective in Europe After the Second World War	93
A. Introduction	93
B. The Various Facets of Nationalism	95
C. The Post-War Critique of Nationalism	97

D. Continental European Philosophical Debates in PrIL After the Second World War	98
1. Henri Batiffol	98
2. Gerhard Kegel	104
E. English PrIL Theory After the Second World War	107
1. R.H. Graveson—Judicial justice and vested rights	108
2. B.A. Wortley—The concept and the rights of man	114
3. F.A. Mann—Uniting PrIL and PublIL through the concept of international jurisdiction	124
F. Critique of the “Tendence Privatiste”	127
1. Phocion Franceskakis	127
2. Duco Kollewijn	130
a) Colonial law	131
b) Recasting Jitta’s reconstruction of Savigny’s theory	135
G. Conclusions	136
5. Individual-Centered and State-Centered Internationalist Perspectives in American Private International Law Theory	138
A. Introduction	138
B. Beale’s Vested Rights Theory	139
1. Law and rights	141
2. Legislative jurisdiction and the move to PublIL	142
C. The Realist School—Cook and Lorenzen	144
1. The critique of Beale’s theory	145
2. Critique against sovereignty, territoriality, and Story	147
D. Brainerd Currie	149
1. David Cavers	151
2. Cavers—Currie correspondence	153
E. Individual-Centered Arguments Against Currie	156
1. Fairness over comity	156
2. Equity	159
3. Disaggregating state interests	161
F. Conclusions	163
6. Recognition, Rights, and Reasonable Expectations	165
A. Introduction	165
B. Breaking the Alleged Unity of the Vested Rights Theories to Make Space for Recognition	166
C. Individualistic Vested Rights Theories	173
1. Friedrich Tittmann	174
2. Friedrich Eichhorn	175
3. Georg Friedrich Puchta	176
D. The State-Centered Internationalist Perspective	176
1. Rights of states	177
2. Empty rights?	179
3. Ethics, morality, and law	180
4. National versus transnational context; recognition versus misrecognition	181
5. Civilized/non-civilized states	182

E. The Relational Internationalist Theories	183
1. Joseph Story	184
2. Friedrich Karl von Savigny	189
a) Rejection of the vested rights doctrine	189
b) Voluntary submission	191
i) Dispositive and imperative laws	192
ii) Sequenced analysis of the nature of legal relations (formal principles; practical considerations in the transnational social realm; relational justice)	196
3. Ferdinand Lasalle	201
4. Josephus Jitta	203
a) Rethinking the analysis of the nature of a legal relation	205
b) Shifting the standpoint of analysis	205
c) Different kinds of freedom	208
F. Conclusions	210
7. Legitimacy and Autonomy	212
A. Introduction	212
B. Legitimate Authority—An Interstate Framework of Justification	215
C. Brilmayer’s “Negative Rights” Theory as a Reaction to the Interest Analysis Methodology	219
D. The Relational Internationalist Perspective	221
1. The social nature of the individual and of freedom	223
2. Politics and private law relations	227
3. Private and public law	232
4. Freedom and responsibility	237
5. Social legitimacy	242
E. Conclusions	246
8. Universalism Versus Uniformity	248
A. Introduction	248
B. Gerhard Kegel	250
C. Individual-Centered Intuitions	253
1. Henri Batiffol	254
2. Alexander Lüderitz	256
3. Alex Flessner	260
D. Interest Jurisprudence and Relational Internationalism	262
1. Joseph Story	265
2. Friedrich Karl von Savigny	271
a) Savigny’s triad: romanticism, anti-Kantianism, and historicism	272
b) Back to PrIL	278
3. Josephus Jitta	282
E. Conclusions	288
9. Conclusions	290
A. Concentric Circles of Relationality	295
B. A Conversation Between the Past and the Present	297

1. Private law and feminist theories of relationality	298
a) Contextual analysis, medium-level relationality versus ideal relationships	298
b) Inherent versus constitutive relationality	299
c) Formal versus substantive autonomy	300
d) Conflicts of rights and interests versus resulting patterns of relationships	301
e) Relational justice versus distributive justice	302
2. Global justice debates	303
3. The value of intellectual historical analysis for PrIL	307
Bibliography	311
Author Index	325
Subject Index	329