

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
List of Illustrations	x
1. The Long Debate	1
1.1. The Controversies	1
1.2. Disentangling the Issues	6
1.3. A Thematic Overview	9
1.4. Two Bathshebas	14
2. Aesthetics and Ethics: Basic Concepts	26
2.1. The Puzzle of the Aesthetic	26
2.2. The Aesthetic and the Artistic	34
2.3. The Concept of the Ethical	41
3. A Conceptual Map	49
3.1. Options in the Debate	49
3.2. Pro tanto Principles	57
4. Autonomism	67
4.1. Radical Autonomism and Artistic Acts	67
4.2. Moderate Autonomism	76
4.3. Aesthetic Relevance	82
5. Artistic and Critical Practices	90
5.1. Artists' Ambitions	92
5.2. Criticism	95
6. Questions of Character	107
6.1. Artworks and Friends	109
6.2. Moral Beauty	114
6.3. Moral Beauty and Works of Art	127
7. The Cognitive Argument: The Epistemic Claim	133
7.1. Formulating Aesthetic Cognitivism	136
7.2. Sources of Knowledge	141
7.3. How to Learn from Imagination	147
7.4. Imagination and Ethical Learning	157

8. The Cognitive Argument: The Aesthetic Claim	165
8.1. Arguing for the Aesthetic Claim	165
8.2. Autonomist and Contextualist Objections	172
8.3. Techniques and Strategies	186
8.4. Lolita	194
9. Emotion and Imagination	203
9.1. The Importance of Emotional Realism	203
9.2. The Possibility of Fiction-Directed Emotions	208
9.3. The Rationality of Fiction-Directed Emotions	216
10. The Merited Response Argument	227
10.1. Versions of the Argument	227
10.2. Objections and Replies	234
10.3. Humour	242
10.4. Conclusion	251
Bibliography	253
Index	263