

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Preface | 9 |
| PART I | |
| Meeting of experts on national measures to repress violations of international humanitarian law | 13 |
| Chapter I Introduction to topics | 15 |
| ■ Opening of the meeting Yves Sandoz, ICRC Director for International Law and Policy | 15 |
| ■ The importance of complying with international humanitarian law Cornelio Sommaruga, President of the ICRC | 18 |
| ■ The repression of violations of international humanitarian law at national level and the work of the ICRC Advisory Service María Teresa Dutli, head of the ICRC Advisory Service on International Humanitarian Law | 23 |
| ■ The need for international accountability M. Cherif Bassiouni, Professor of Law, International Human Rights Law Institute, DePaul University, Chicago | 29 |
| ■ The work of the Athens Congress (May 1997) of the International Society for Military Law and the Law of War on national measures to repress violations of international humanitarian law André Andries, Director of the Society's documentation centre | 65 |

| | | |
|---------------|---|----|
| Chapter II | National systems to repress violations of international humanitarian law | 74 |
| ■ Belgium | Damien Vandermeersch, Investigating Judge, Brussels | 74 |
| ■ Switzerland | Robert Roth, Professor of Criminal Law, University of Geneva | 76 |
| ■ Germany | Horst Fischer, Professor of International Law, Institute for International Law of Peace and Armed Conflict, Ruhr University of Bochum..... | 78 |
| ■ Spain | José-Luis Rodríguez-Villasante y Prieto, Judge Advocate General, Madrid | 80 |
| ■ Croatia | Zvonimir Separovic, Professor of Law, University of Zagreb..... | 82 |
| Chapter III | Relations between national courts and the ad hoc Criminal Tribunals for the former Yugoslavia and Rwanda..... | 85 |
| | Wen-qi Zhu, Legal Adviser, Office of the Prosecutor, International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia..... | 85 |
| | Laïty Kama, President of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda..... | 94 |
| Chapter IV | Particular cases and problems: repeated violations, mass violations, violations committed by many perpetrators, and the judicial structures set up to deal with them ... | 98 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| ■ The case of Rwanda Siméon Rwagasore, Prosecutor General of the Supreme Court of Rwanda | 98 |
| ■ The case of Ethiopia Yosef Gebreegziabher Gebreyohannes, Attorney at Law and Legal Adviser | 108 |
| Chapter V Group work | 113 |
| ■ Introduction to topics put forward for discussion Cristina Pellandini, Legal Adviser, ICRC Advisory Service on International Humanitarian Law | 114 |
| ■ Report of Group I Substantive law and legislative approach | 117 |
| ■ Report of Group II General principles of criminal law | 123 |
| ■ Report of Group III Procedural law | 130 |
| Chapter VI Closure of the meeting | 139 |
| ■ Conclusions of the Chairman Yves Sandoz, ICRC Director for International Law and Policy | 139 |
| ■ ANNEXES | |
| I. Agenda of the meeting | 143 |
| II. List of participants | 147 |
| III. Recommendations of the International Society for Military Law and the Law of War on the essential principles related to the national repression of grave breaches of the law of armed conflict | 150 |

| | | |
|----------------|---|------------|
| PART II | Case studies of systems for national repression | 155 |
| ■ | BELGIUM | |
| | Belgian legal system for the repression of crimes under international law Damien Vandermeersch, Investigating Judge, Brussels | 157 |
| ■ | SWITZERLAND | |
| | The repression of violations of international humanitarian law in Switzerland Robert Roth, Professor of Criminal Law, University of Geneva Marc Henzelin, Assistant Lecturer, Law Faculty, University of Geneva | 197 |
| | The prosecution of presumed war criminals in Switzerland Jürg van Wijnkoop, Judge Advocate General, Swiss Federal Military Department | 216 |
| | The repression of violations of international humanitarian law in Switzerland: Aspects of criminal procedure Bernhard Sträuli, Investigating Judge | 231 |
| ■ | GERMANY | |
| | The repression of violations of international humanitarian law under German domestic law Sascha Rolf Lüder, under the supervision of Horst Fischer, Professor of Law, Institute for International Law of Peace and Armed Conflict, Ruhr University of Bochum | 242 |

■ SPAIN

| | |
|--|-----|
| The protection of war victims under the 1995 Spanish Penal Code: Offences against persons and objects protected in the event of armed conflict José-Luis Rodríguez-Villasante y Prieto, Judge Advocate General | 256 |
|--|-----|

| | |
|--|-----|
| Violations of international humanitarian law: Questionnaire Colonel Fernando Pignatelli and Lieutenant Colonel García Labajo, under the supervision of Major General José-Luis Rodríguez-Villasante y Prieto and the coordination of Manuel Fernández Gómez, Spanish Red Cross Centre for the Study of International Humanitarian Law | 279 |
|--|-----|

■ INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE RED CROSS

| | |
|--|-----|
| Comparative study of some national systems of repression Summary prepared by the ICRC Advisory Service on International Humanitarian Law | 293 |
|--|-----|

■ ANNEXES

| | |
|--|-----|
| I. Questionnaire..... | 318 |
| II. (a) Comparative table of national systems of repression: Substantive criminal law | 321 |
| II. (b) Comparative table of national systems of repression: Procedural criminal law..... | 324 |