

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
1 The Purpose of This Book	3
Appendix: Comparison between the General Theory of This Book and the Special Theory of the Construction of Social Reality	19
2 Intentionality	25
3 Collective Intentionality and the Assignment of Function	42
4 Language as Biological and Social	61
5 The General Theory of Institutions and Institutional Facts: Language and Social Reality	90
6 Free Will, Rationality, and Institutional Facts	123
7 Power: Deontic, Background, Political, and Other	145
8 Human Rights	174
Appendix	199
Concluding Remarks: The Ontological Foundations of the Social Sciences	200
Subject Index	203
Name Index	207

SUBJECT INDEX

- action, 33–37
 intentions-in-action, 33–35
 and intention, 33–35
 and causal self-referentiality, 36
- Background, 31–32, 155–60
- Bio Power, 152–55
 and Bentham's panopticon, 153
 and knowledge, 153
 and normalization, 53
- collective action
 as constitutive of performance, 52–54
 as causal, 52–54
- Collective Intentionality, 8, 42–60 and class consciousness, 166 and collective assignment of function, 48
 and reducibility, 46–50
 as fundamental to social ontology, 43
- Collective Recognition, 102–3
 as distinguished from cooperation, 56–58
- conditions of satisfaction, 29
- consciousness prelinguistic, 67–69
- corporations
 as double declarations, 97–100
- Declarations, 12–13
 and linguistic phenomena, 13
 as performative utterances, 12
 as Status Functions, 13, 114
- deontic powers, 8–9, 123
 conditional, 9
 disjunctive, 9
 negative 9
 positive, 9
 and rationality, 130
 and speech acts, 100
 and status functions, 105
- deontology, 80–85
 necessity of language, 82
 and social reality, 84–85
 as commitment, 81
 as obligation, 82
 as internal to speech acts, 83
- desire primary and secondary, 127
- direction of fit, 27–30
- epistemic objectivity, 17–18
epistemic subjectivity, 17–18
- Exactness Constraint, 153–55
- freestanding y terms, 20, 99, 101, 108–9
 and creation of deontic powers, 101–3
- free will, 123–44
- function, 58–59
 agentive, 72
 status, 7, 59

- Gap, the, 133, 133–39
- government
 as ultimate institutional structure, 161–64
- human rights, 174–99
 absolute, 197
 conditional, 197
 negative and positive prima facie, 196
 and free speech, 187–89
 and obligations, 177–79
 and universal human obligations, 179
 as status functions, 176
- institutional facts, 10
 discoverable, 20
 and free will, 123
 and imagination, 121
 and intensionality, 119–21
 and systematic fallout, 22, 117
 as co-extensive with status functions, 22
 as macro facts, 22, 116
- institutions and brute force, 141
 and unconscious robots, 135–37
- intentionality, 25–41
 definition, 25–26
 structure of, 27, 38–40
 and consciousness, 26
- intentionality-relative, 17
- intentions
 causal gaps, 40
 and freedom of will, 41
- language, 61–89
 naturalized, 61
 primary functions of, 71
 and compositionality, 64, 76, 85
 and discreteness, 63
 and extralinguistic operations, 109–10
 and generativity, 64, 79
 and manipulation of syntax, 68 and prelinguistic mentality, 65 and unity of the proposition, 70
 as an institution, 109
 as basic form of commitment, 82
 as necessary for functions, 62
- Leibniz's Law, 119
 and rationality, 124
- linguistic institutional facts, 113
 and non-linguistic institutional facts, 113
- methodological individualism, 47
- Network, 31–32
- obligation
 and the necessity of language, 95–96
- observer-relative, 17
- ontological objectivity, 18
- ontological subjectivity, 18
- performatives linguistic 110–11
 non-linguistic, 110–11
 role of meaning, 110–12
- power, 145–173
 Bio Power, 152–55
 political, 160–65
 telic, 155
 and Background practices, 155–60
 and directives, 151
 and intentional exercise of, 148
 and social pressure, 156–60 and threats, 152
 and unintended consequences, 150
 as capacity, 145–46
 as distinguished from leadership, 148
 as power over, 146–47
 as a right, 148

- reasons
 - desire-independent, 9, 86, 127–31
 - practical, 124–26
 - prudential, 142
 - theoretical, 124–26
 - total
 - and motivators, 126
 - as constitutive, 126
 - as effectors, 126
 - as factitive entities, 216–27
- representation
 - as distinguished from expression, 72–73
- representation
 - as functional notion, 30
- rights
 - and deontic powers, 176
 - as obligations, 177–79
 - as status functions, 176
- rules
 - constitutive, 97–98
 - regulative, 97
 - as Status Function Declarations, 97
- Status Function Declarations, 14, 19–20, 97, 105, 114, 201–2
 - non-linguistic, 114
- status functions, 7
 - and deontic powers, 8–9
- the political, 171
 - public and private requirement, 171
- trialism, 4
- type-token distinction, 75
- writing, 115–16
- X counts as Y in C , 9–10
 - and language 110
 - as constitutive rule, 96
 - as Status Function Declaration, 19–20