

---

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
Acknowledgments	xv
1. Introduction Erin F. Delaney and Rosalind Dixon	1
PART I THE ORIGINS AND FUNCTIONS OF JUDICIAL REVIEW
2. The real case for judicial review Alon Harel and Adam Shinar	13
3. Constitutions as political insurance: variants and limits Rosalind Dixon and Tom Ginsburg	36
4. Comparative constitutional law as a window on democratic institutions Samuel Issacharoff	60
5. The origins and growth of judicial enforcement Steven Gow Calabresi	83
PART II THE POLITICAL AND INSTITUTIONAL CONTEXTS FOR JUDICIAL REVIEW
6. Interpreting constitutions in divided societies Hanna Lerner	99
7. Judicial review in the context of constitutional Islam Salma Waheedi and Kristen Stilt	117
8. New judicial roles in governance Robert A. Kagan, Diana Kapiszewski and Gordon Silverstein	142
9. Competition or collaboration: constitutional review by multiple final courts Wen-Chen Chang and Yi-Li Lee	164
PART III THE STABILITY AND EFFECTIVENESS OF JUDICIAL REVIEW
10. Judicial review as a self-stabilizing constitutional mechanism Tonja Jacobi, Sonia Mittal and Barry R. Weingast	185
11. Losing faith in law's autonomy: a comparative analysis Theunis Roux	204
12. Courts and support structures: beyond the classic narrative David Landau	226
13. National perspectives on international constitutional review: diverging optics Karen J. Alter	244

vi Comparative judicial review

14. Efficacious judging on apex courts 272
Lee Epstein and Jack Knight
15. Limiting judicial discretion 290
Mila Versteeg and Emily Zackin

PART IV OPERATIONALIZING JUDICIAL REVIEW: TYPOLOGIES, DOCTRINES AND METHODOLOGICAL CHALLENGES

16. Beyond Europe and the United States: the wide world of judicial review 318
Virgílio Afonso da Silva
17. Judicial review and Public Reason 337
Wojciech Sadurski
18. Pockets of proportionality: choice and necessity, doctrine and principle 357
Vicki C. Jackson
19. Comparative approaches to constitutional history 379
Jamal Greene and Yvonne Tew
20. Judicial review and the politics of comparative citations: theory, evidence and methodological challenges 403
Ran Hirschl
- Index* 423