

Contents

1 Things and Their Place in Theories	1
2 Empirical Content	24
3 What Price Bivalence?	31
4 On the Very Idea of a Third Dogma	38
5 Use and Its Place in Meaning	43
6 On the Nature of Moral Values	55
7 Five Milestones of Empiricism	67
8 Russell's Ontological Development	73
9 On Austin's Method	86
10 Smart's Philosophy and Scientific Realism	92
11 Goodman's Ways of Worldmaking	96
12 On the Individuation of Attributes	100
13 Intensions Revisited	113
14 Worlds Away	124
15 Grades of Discriminability	129
16 Lewis Carroll's Logic	134
17 Kurt Gödel	143
18 Success and Limits of Mathematization	148
19 On the Limits of Decision	156
20 Predicates, Terms, and Classes	164
21 Responses	173
22 Postscript on Metaphor	187
23 Has Philosophy Lost Contact with People?	190
24 Paradoxes of Plenty	194
25 The Times Atlas	199
26 Mencken's American Language	203
References	209
Index	215