

Contents

Foreword	xi
JOCELYNE CESARI
Notes on transliterations and style	xiii
Acknowledgments	xv
Introduction: from Islam in Europe to European Islam	1
PART I
Voices of European Islam	37
1 Bassam Tibi: cultural modernity for religious reform and Euro-Islam	39
2 Tariq Ramadan: from adaptive to transformative reform and European Islam	74
3 Tareq Oubrou: geotheology and the minoritization of Islam	117
4 Abdennour Bidar: self Islam, Islamic existentialism, and overcoming religion	140
PART II
European Islamic thought and the formation of perpetual modernity paradigm	163
5 Ontological revolution and epistemological shift in European Islamic thought	165

x	Contents
6	Conceptualizing the idea of European Islam: Taha Abderrahmane's trusteeship critique for overcoming classical dichotomous thought	186
7	Consolidating the idea of European Islam through perpetual modernity paradigm	209
8	European Islam as a Rawlsian reasonable comprehensive doctrine	234
	Conclusion: from European Islam to Arab Islam	293
	Index	301